CANADIANS' NARROW WIN

Beat Colts by 24 to 23—Adanacs' Decisive Victory Over Maple Leafs Was Surprise

Another hard game was staged between the Sons of Canada and the Colts in the Senior Basketball League match last night with the Canucks just getting away with victory by a score of 24 to 23. The Sons had the best of the opening half and deserved their lead at the end of that period. In the second half, however, the Colts came back strong and, but for the lack of a little discretion on the part of George Mitchell, might have inflicted a first defeat upon the Sons. As it was the latter team took better advantages of its chances and was just value for its win.

E. A. Mann refereed and the teams lined up and scored as follows:

Sons of Canada—R. B. Skinner (3), 2; V. Menzies (1); H. Menzies (1), 6; Balfour (2), 11; D. Graham (1), 4; H. Astori (2), 1.—Total 24.

Colts—S. Bazett-Jones (3); R. Bartlett, G. Mitchell (4), 6; A. A. Easson, 6; W. Mitchell (2), 7; E. Smith (1), 4.—Total 23.

Intermediate Game

The Intermediate game between the Colts and Grotto, won by the former 35 to 26, was about the poorest match played so far this season. Neither team made any strenuous effort at combined play and it was not until the last part of the second half that any enthusiasm was shown when the Grotto had the Colts travelling. J. Sim and G. Anderson, two newcomers, did fairly well but the former would improve his play with a little more attention to the ball.

Colts—M. Budenich, 2; J. Sim (3); R. Smith, 16; G. Blythe, 13; J. Kelly (2), 4.—Total, 35.

Grotto—W. Gray (3), 2; G. Hill (4), 2; G. Anderson (1), 6; W. Wrathall 12; T. Fraser (1), 2; L. Anderson (1), 2.—Total, 26.

R. B. Skinner refereed.

Ladies' League

One of the surprises of the season was served up in the Ladies' game when the Adanacs took the champion Maple Leafs into camp by no uncertain score—16 to 6. The Maple Leafs started well but bad luck in shooting seemed to upset their game although every credit is due the Adanac guards, Miss Dyer and Miss Tremayne, for their close effective checking. Except for some smart combination, the Maple Leafs were below the standard of their opponents in the evening's showing.

Adanacs — Miss Willa Dyer, Miss Pete Tremayne, 2; Miss A. Kelly, 6; Miss Leona Parker, 8; Miss V. Shockley.—Total 16.

Maple Leafs — Miss L. Lowe (2), Miss A. Stephens, Miss M. Graham, Miss M. Harvey (2), 2; Miss S. Calderone, 4.—Total 6.

R. B. Skinner was referee.

The Junior League game resulted in victory for the Stars over the High School by 30 to 10.

Junior line-ups and scoring:

High School—Benny Wendell, 6; Bob Matheson; Elvin Johnson, 2; Clarence Thompson; Yoshi Katsuyama, 2; Isa Katsuyama.—Total 10.

Stars—Clarence Capstick, 14; Harry Walker; Eric Dingwall; Eddie Walters, 12; Darrell Casey, 4; Freddie Dingwell. — Total, 30.

Word to Spectators

Good clean games are certainly being staged so far this season in the various leagues and it is to be regretted that some of the spectators show symptoms of too much partizanship and also allow their actions and remarks to get below the line of clean sport. If they desire the players to play the game, the spectators should show good examples. Some of the remarks and one action in particular last night warranted drastic action from the officials especially when they come from enthusiasts who should know better. Those on the "side-lines" should play the game just as well as the "players on the floor."

Standings to date in the various leagues follow:

Tris Speaker of Cleveland and Babe Ruth of New York sent more runners over the plate than any other pair of players in the American League during the season of 1923. The two are tied at 130 runs for which they were responsible. Harry Heilmann of Detroit, leader in batting, brought in 115 while Joe Sewell of Cleveland sent in 109 and Wallie Pipp of New York 108. Leon Goslin of Washington missed the century figure by being responsible for 99 tallies.

Ruth set a record for the American League by getting to first on base on balls 170 times. Encountering the concentrated skill of the American League pitching it is natural that he should strike out as often as the majority and his record of 93 leads the next by eleven. William Kamm of Chicago, although not the swinger of the Ruth type, "fanned" 82 times and drew 62 bases on balls to offset it.

The one who baffled the pitchers the most was Eddie Collins of Chicago who only struck out eight times during the season. The Chicago second sacker, however, did not make his hits count for as much as others batting in only 67 runs. In this connection his sacrifice hits record in advancing batters and his walks taken into consideration. Among others whom the pitchers found hard to fool were Joe Sewell with 12 strikeouts, Ty Cobb with 14, Edgar Rice of Washington 12, Bassler and Jones of Detroit and Tobin of St. Louis with 13 each, and Speaker of Cleveland with 15.

Joe Sewell worried 98 passes out of the pitchers and Blue of Detroit, 96, these two being next to Ruth. Speaker walked 93 times and Eddie Colins 84, while Jamieson of Cleveland was passed 80 times. Manush of Detroit has a unique record by being hit by a pitched ball 17 times although he figured in only 109 games. Next to him was Stanley Harris of Washington with 13 and Hauser of Philadelphia and Mastil of Chicago with 12 each.

Cleveland as a team had the best "waiters," with 633 bases on balls. Next comes Detroit with 596 while Washington and Chicago are tied with 532. New York figures fifth with 521 and then comes Philadelphia, St. Louis and Boston, the latter with 391. Philadelphia, with a number of hard swinging batters, compiled the biggest record in strikeouts with 517. New York was only one behind. Cleveland and Detroit were the two hardest teams to pitch to, the former leading in the fewest number of strikeouts with 384, Detroit having only one more. Detroit batters profited most by being hit 55 times, getting in the way of the ball during the season. Cleveland, closely competing with the Tigers in several departments of the game, was next with 49. St. Louis had the fewest number of hit batters with 26. New York profited only to the extent of 34.
