BOB OGILVIE'S BODY IS FOUND

Remains of Missing Manager of Canada Railway News Discovered Under Wharf

In an advanced stage of decomposition, the body of the late Robert Ogilvie, former manager of the Canada Railway News stand at the G.T.P. wharf, was found this morning on the rocks under the wharf west of No. 3 G.T.P. shed. The discovery was made by members of the B. and N. Department of the railway who were working on the wharf. They notified J. A. Lindsay who in turn notified the city police.

Sergeant Bailey was detailed to investigate and, after recovering the body, he identified it as that of the late Mr. Ogilvie from letters in the pockets of the clothes and also from a watch chain bearing the insignia of the 16th Canadian Battalion in which deceased served during the war.

The body was so badly decomposed that it was a difficult matter to establish identity therefrom. Deceased had been missing since the morning of May 21 and there was no clue to his whereabouts. His wife died about a year ago and since that time he had been known to have spells of despondency. That he might have taken his life during one of these spells was not unexpected. He was a man of about 35 years of age and had been in the city for two or three years as manager for the Canada Railway News having come here from the prairies.

Coroner Gale has been notified and he will decide whether or not an inquest will be necessary.

Thames watermen recently revived the ancient custom of "landing the pie" at Eel Pie Island, Twickenham, after a lapse of more than a century. Here is Henry VII, watching his queen cut the pie after it had been brought ashore by Ernest Barry, the famous sculler.

Two Ministers to Visit Prince Rupert this Year from Ottawa Hon. Ernest Lapointe Coming

That Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of marine and fisheries, and Hon. J. H. King, minister of public works in the Dominion cabinet, are both to visit Prince Rupert this year, that the government is carrying on without friction and will continue to carry on, and that Prince Rupert is destined for a good deal of attention in the future, were among the statements made by Fred Stork, member for this district, who arrived home last evening. Mr. Stork came to meet Sir Henry Thornton here and Ottawa as the House, it is expected, will adjourn at the end of the month. He passed the railway party at Prince George in the night and decided to come on home and be here ready to meet the visitors on their arrival.

Speaking of the session at Ottawa, Mr. Stork said a great deal of time had been spent in discussing the Bank Act revision but not very many changes had been made in it. All sorts of amendments had been offered but they were rejected by the House. Speaking of visits of the ministers, the member said Mr. Lapointe had stated definitely he would be here. He is naturally interested in Prince Rupert, being minister of marine and fisheries, and he recognizes the importance of Prince Rupert and especially of her fisheries and her future prospects from a shipping point of view. Dr. King also intends to come to the city on one of his visits to the west. The premier and four members of the cabinet will attend the Imperial conference this year and will spend most of the autumn in Europe.

Sir Henry Thornton is now Big Tye since his Initiation Burns Lake

BURNS LAKE, June 22.—Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways, accompanied by E. L. Decari, Col. Talbot, F. G. Dawson, J. E. Dalrymple, H. Garton, A. E. Warren, H. B. Melanson, W. T. Manders, R. Greenman, H. A. Dixon, James Horne, George A. McNicholl, J. R. Cameron, N. B. Walton and Hon. T. D. Pattullo, were entertained at Burns Lake and shown over a small portion of the Lakes district. The cars of A. M. Ruddy, C. G. Dittmer, F. R. Keefe, J. R. McCrimmon and others were placed at their disposal and a large party motored to Grassy Plains inspecting the fertile valleys and taking note of the vast timber resources en route. Dinner was served at the ranch of John E. Bostrom who was proud to entertain such a group of fellow railroad men.

Returning to Burns Lake the party were entertained at what was probably the most cosmopolitan dance that such a distinguished party had ever attended. The youth and beauty of the district were there augmented by a representation of Indians from Babine, Stuart Lake, Cumningsham Lake, Francois, Uncha, Cheslatta, Manitoia and all neighboring lakes. The most modern dances were interspersed with ceremonial dances of the various Indian tribes and in the course of the evening the many chiefs under the leadership of Daniel Leon bestowed the title of Wickstia Saghalie Tyhee of all the Indians of the lakes district on Sir Henry Thornton, constituting him a chief for all time to come.

Sir Henry distinguished himself by going through the many intricate steps of the Red River jig with the Babine chieftainess as a partner to the throbbing of the tom-tom and the stirring fiddling of the Stuart Lake half breeds of Hudson Bay ancestry.

When the music changed to a dreamy waltz beautifully rendered by the local talent, Sir Henry selected Miss Irma Lewis and proved that he knew more dances beside the Red River jig. The citizens of Burns Lake decided that they would not worry him with their troubles as he saw for himself the vast possibilities of the hinterland and feel every confidence in him as a big man in every way. The district will now look for the development of the tie and pulp industries, as increased tonnage for the C.N.R. is Sir Henry's aim.
