FESTIVAL ENJOYED

One Hundred and Fifty Children Entertained at Affair by Woman's Labor League

Under the auspices of the Women's Labor League, one hundred and fifty children were entertained at a Christmas festival in the Canadian Labor Defence League Hall on Thursday evening. The program consisted of musical selections on every conceivable instrument and several clever acts by the children. Among the individual numbers were violin solos by Miss Alice Gomez, accompanied by Mrs. Wall, and guitar solos by Mrs. Holden.

For the children, of course, the distribution of Christmas presents was the most interesting feature of the evening's proceedings. The gifts consisted of useful wearing apparel, toys for the younger children and candy and fruit. No child went away disappointed.

The members of the League responsible for the success of the entertainment included Mesdames Gomez, White, Field, Wall and Holden.

City Merchants assisted the affair with contributions of cheer and money, all of which were much appreciated.
