Catholic Ladies' Annual Affair Commencing this Afternoon is Most Attractive

More attractive than ever and bidding fair to be even more successful than the many popular events of a similar nature held in the past under the same auspices, the annual event of the ladies of the Catholic Church is in progress today in the Old K. of P. Hall and will continue tomorrow. While Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of marine and fisheries, will formally open the affair this evening at 8 o'clock, the doors were opened to the public at 2 o'clock this afternoon when Father P. J. McGrath made a few suitable remarks.

The hall presents indeed a bright scene and the various tables and booths are stocked with a wider range of articles for sale than ever before. The decorations of bunting, foliage and flowers have been artistically arranged and are a feature. As the affair progresses, musical numbers will be rendered.

Country Store

At the country store, decorated in lavender and yellow, there are offered vegetables, fruit, groceries and all manner of novelties and the raffles are also being held there. Mrs. Fred Moersch is convener of this department being assisted by Mrs. Jack Keeffe, Miss Adams and Mrs. J. J. Muldoon.

The fancy work booth, decorated in white and pink, is in charge of Mrs. J. Lorne Maclaren assisted by Mrs. S. Bateher, Mrs. B. Gartin, Mrs. M. P. McGaffery and Mrs. Charles Balagno. There are all manner of dainty articles for sale in this department.

The candy booth has a great variety of tempting delicacies. It is decorated in green and yellow and is in charge of Mrs. J. J. Pitts, who has assisting her Mrs. Griffith, Miss Pulmira Astoria, Miss Mary Astoria and Miss Duett.

Tea Room

The tea room, home cooking booth and fish pond take up one entire side of the hall, and are most elaborately decorated with purple, pink, green and white predominating. In charge of this section is Mrs. J. C. Gavigan, assisted by Mrs. Ed. Lawler, Mrs. Lawrence Lawler, Mrs. W. Gratton, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. D. W. Morrissey.

Father McGrath, ever popular at such affairs as this, is giving the bazaar his general supervision and assistance.

Matt Larsen, charged with supplying liquor to an Indian named Joseph Wright, was remanded until tomorrow in the police court this morning. Another witness for the defence is to be called. Milton Gonzales appears for Larsen.
