Embargo by Canada on Wood Pulp Will Prove Hardship to Newspapers

WASHINGTON, July 13 .-The United States government is giving serious consideration, it is stated, to the action of the Canadian parliament in the authorization of an embargo on wood pulp. The state department will doubtless address a protest to the Canadian government indicating that such an embargo would be a burden to United States newspapers and consumers of wood pulp. Retaliation will not be brought down although it is not overlooked that the United States government Is clothed with large powers to retaliate under the new Tariff Act.
