HUMAN INTEREST STORY IS ADAM'S RIB SHOWN HERE AT THE WEEK END

Has to do With Entanglement of Affairs Between Husband and Wife

A story with real human interest is "Adam's Rib," Cecil B. De Mille's latest Paramount which is coming to the Westholme Theatre tomorrow. The theme of the production is the untanglement of the affairs of a husband and wife by their young daughter, a typical example of the sensible type of the modern girl.

Anna Q. Nilsson, as Mrs. Ramsay, the wife of Michael Ramsay, a prosperous Chicago business man played by Milton Sills, has taken a fancy to M. Jaromir (Theodore Kosloff), the exiled king of Morania. Her husband, fearing that he is going to lose her, hits upon a plan to have Jaromir's country recall him to the throne.

Passing Fancy

Morania is in need of funds, and Ramsay, an enormously rich man, buys up all the wheat in Morania and in return they recall Jaromir to his throne, and he is thus gotten out of the way. His wife returns to him, after realizing that her interest in Jaromir was only a passing fancy.

The daughter, played by Pauline Garon, saves the mother from discovery while she is at the apartment of the king. Ramsey sees his wife's pocket-book on the table. Mathilda pops out from behind the curtain where she and her mother are concealed and says that she is the one that came to visit Jaromir.

Ramsay is completely taken aback and tells her that she is an outcast and no man would marry her. Prof. Nathan Reade whom Mathilda had met at the customs inspection on her return from Europe, steps up and professes his love. Mathilda and he are married, and everything turns out well in the end, thanks to the girl. Jaromir is punished by marrying a fat princess awaiting him in his native land.

Vision Scene

Mr. De Mille in this production, has inserted a sort of "vision" scene similar to the noted "bacchanal" scene in "Manslaughter," showing the life of primitive man as compared to that of present day beings. You will be surprised to note that while centuries have passed since the era of the cave man, the love affairs of the entire human race are now much the same as they were in the time of the "stegosaurus unglatus," or in plain English—the armored dinosaur.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

September 27, 1913.

P. W. Clark, son of Patrick Clark, wealthy mining man of Spokane, and M. Sullivan, mining expert from Moscow, Idaho, arrived from the south on the steamer Prince Rupert this morning and left by train for Hazelton where they will spend some time making a careful examination of the extent of ore bodies. They were met here by H. W. C. Jackson, expert for the Hazelton Mine Owners' Association.

Hazelton district won the Fair Board's trophy for the best district display of minerals of any kind at the Exhibition. Portland Canal obtained the award for the largest individual exhibit. Alfred C. Garde, M.E. and Gilbert Burrowes were the judges.

There was an enthusiastic Liberal rally in St. Andrew's Hall last night. A. M. Manson, president of the Association, was in the chair and among the speakers were Fred Stork, T. J. Vaughn-Rhys (Stewart), C. W. Peck, and W. J. McKenzie (Hazelton). The arrogant oligarchy of the Bowser-McBride porvincial administration was denounced.

SUCCESSFUL TEA FOR CATHOLIC CHURCH WAS HELD YESTERDAY AFT.

A very successful and enjoyable tea was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Muldoon, the proceeds of which amounting to approximately $37 went to the bazaar fund of the Catholic Church. The bazaar will take place next month.

Those who poured were Mrs. Curtin, Mrs. Morrissey, Mrs. Ritchie and Mrs. Henning, while those serving were Mrs. P. Byrne, Mrs. McNulty, and Mrs. McLaren. The home cooking sale was in the hands of Mrs. John Pitts and Mrs. Besner, and ices were cut by Mrs. Meagher and Mrs. Moersch.

There were two raffles in charge of Mrs. Jack Keefe. Mrs. Batcher won a china dish donated by Mrs. Muldoon and Mrs. Charles Balagno won a cake dish donated by Mrs. Besner.

Sport Chat

The Granby News has the following remarks to make about the baseball series which took place here during the Fair Week:

"In winning the amateur baseball championship of Northern British Columbia, which was contested in a tournament held in connection with the annual fair at Prince Rupert, the Anyox aggregation justified the belief which the majority of our home fans had in their ability to take into camp any regular combination of ball players with whom they might be matched in this northern country. Their two wins at Prince Rupert, the first over Smithers and the second against Rupert were very popular in Anyox, the boys of the champion team comprising players from each baseball group in the Anyox League, the membership of which has given so much pleasure to lovers of good sport during the present season, as well as in past seasons of competition for local honors.

"We were asked to participate in the tournament which was staged in the Grand Trunk town, and would liked to have sent a representative soccer team along as well; for we believe the players of the football league would have given a splendid account of themselves and brought home another championship cup. When the guarantee required was mentioned, however, the figure could not be considered by the Fair officials. The great distances between Anyox and other points of sufficient importance to support baseball and football teams prohibit the regular engagements such as are indulged in where communities are situated in close proximity to each other; and together with the lapse of time between passenger boats, the loss of time on the part of those who participate and the expenses of travelling incurred, it is not surprising that the best of the talent available does not always respond to the invitation to leave home on athletic conquest bent. This is not the rule, however, but is a consideration.

"Invariably, any team leaving Anyox for a period of several days cannot hope to contain the very best players necessary to fill every position. This was so in connection with the visit to Stewart early in the season, also for the Ketchikan series in July, and to a lesser extent for the Rupert Fair tournament. A fine average and well-balanced team had the baseball honor of Anyox in its keeping there, and made good. It is a mighty fine thing to be able to pay these visits to neighboring towns occasionally, to be privileged to measure our skill and athletic abilities against stranger aggregations. It gives us a chance to get a line on ourselves when we meet the other fellow who has also been playing the same old game under circumstances similar to our own.

"Altogether, the Rupert affair was a fitting finale to a sport season which was slightly upset owing to circumstances over which none of us had any control. Without the co-operation of the company management, however, these trips would be entirely out of the question; and we are fortunate above our neighbors because of this; for if it were not for the interest displayed by the company officials in our games, the transportation situation would prevent the playing of games away from home, except on extremely rare occasions."
