URGES USE OF WHOLE WHEAT BREAD IN ORDER TO KEEP MORE HEALTHY

Mrs. Garland Foster Discusses Food Values Before Convention of Women's Institutes

NELSON, Nov. 22 .- Mrs. W. Garland Foster, in addressing the conference of wemen's institutes here on the subject of "Food Values," stated that she would like to see three things brought about. First, the standardization of whole wheat flour; second, the study of chemistry of foods in the schools; and, third, the study of food econo-

The speaker outlined the scientific value of the various food, dealing first with the calorie, or heat producing foods which could not be released without the conjunction of the vitamines which promote tissue and nerve building.

"Our wheat flour is a disgrace to any race," declared the speaker. "We have gotten away from the food of our ancestors." If a person did not get the necessary 16 calories of food per day the rouge pot was resorted to.

Waterfront Whiffs

(Continued from Page 5) gave chase with the result that he soon overtook the deer. The deer in its anxiety to get away from its foe collided with a tree and knocked its head off. At any rate that is the big story on the waterfront this week It is a fact, however, that the skipper hrought home a very respectable trophy of the chase.

Cooks and Good Housekeepers The native power boat Emma Grace, which has been in port during the week doing overhaul work, left port on Thursday morning.

Atli Back From Chase

The schooner Atli. Capt. Brandy Newell, returned to port on Tuesday night from a hunting trip to Hartley Bay, Dog Be sure that you Cove and White Rocks. The party included Bill Watts, Ed. Kenney. of Terrace, and Harold Nickerson. Bill Watts, the crack shot of the party, shot a live buck! dead. He would have got a lot more game but his rifle insisted upon shooting around corners. The rest of the party had the rifles on their good behavior and Walter Baker & Co. Limited got away with a nice bag of ducks land deer.
