First Shot of Provincial Minister Sent into Camp of the Enemy McRae Would Grab Province

VICTORIA, Dec. 15.—The determination of the provincial a government to hold an investigation into the allegations made by Sir Charles Tupper at a recent meeting of the Third Party ollowers when he reiterated charges in the Searchlight, the organ of that party, was further emphasized in the Legislature · yesterday when the second reading of the bill to amend the Public Inquiries Act and to widen the scope of any commission appointed thereunder, came up for consideration. Hon. William Sloan, minister of mines, who with W. J.

Bowser had been charged with having accepted $50,000 from LIOUOR PROFIT 1916 for campaign purposes, again on the floor of the House denied the charge. The minister MAN IS OUTLINED was bitter in his remarks and atthe new party, and the latter's Municipalities Will Receive Nearserted that General McRae's desire was to "grab the province of British Columbia."
