Waterfront Whiffs

is the driest place he has struck yet. In fact it is so dry that the natives are suffering from a malady diagnosed as dust on the heart.

Mug-up Passes
The old waterfront stand known as the Mug-up for several years past has gone for ever. The building has been purchased by N. M. McLean and is now known as the Seaside Lunch Counter. While the lunch counter has only recently been opened the bill of fare put up by Cy Nickerson, a man of many dishes, has proved so popular that extensions are already contemplated. Cy is a cook of the old guard, and takes his hat off to no one when it comes down to cooking. To pass the Seaside lunch counter on an empty stomach is one of the real impossibilities of this life. Cy is conjuring up all sorts of dainty dishes daily and his latest concoction of devilled turkey and clam chowder sauce is one of the masterpieces of the culinary art.

Fish Business
During the week 267,000 lbs. of halibut has been marketed on the Fish Exchange. Americans were high at 18.1c and 11c and low at 17.1c and 9c. The arrivals were: Helegland, Seattle, Sumner, Sunset, Mildred, Constitution, Atlantio and Tattosh.

At the regular meeting of the Hospital Board last night a letter was read from the Hospital Association telling of their activities at Victoria. It was ordered to be replied to and the association assured of whatever assistance it was possible to give locally.
