Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce entered its 1947-48 year last night with meeting at which President A. P. Crawley reported on the recent regional convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Canada at Harrison Hot Springs and with the appointment of chairmen of standing committees for the coming year.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Guests at the meeting, which was held at the Commodore with an attendance of 35, were Miss Lorraine Youngman, Junior Chamber Port Queen candidate, and J. Harry Black, senior Chamber delegate. Both were warmly welcomed by the members.

A major item of business was a decision to raise the annual membership dues from $5 to $7.50 with the increase to be divided between the support of the Junior Chamber national magazine "Action" and a regional convention fund.

The following committe chairmen were appointed by President Crawley:

Within the stone walls of the Basilica of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception, Ottawa's cathedral church, six princes of the Roman Catholic church gathered for the liturgical reception to one of them. He was the personal representative of Pope Pius XII, legate latere, James Cardinal McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto. It was the largest number of cardinals ever to come together in the Americas in the 2,000-year history of the church. Before the week was done three more arrived to participate in the Marian Congress, to which Cardinal McGuigan was the specially appointed papal legate. The ceremony marked the opening of the Marian Congress.
