

OPPORTUNITY SYSTEM

Every man likes to be a success story, and there are many ways to achieve it.

A few weeks ago the whole world was talking about the success story of a young man from Prince Rupert. He had started with a bicycle repair shop just outside Oxford, and had built up a business that was worth a fortune.

CLEVELAND BOYS ON ALASKA DRIVE

Wednesday night a car bearing four boys from Cleveland, Ohio, and a large sign reading "Alaska or Bust," arrived in Prince Rupert. Today it looked as though the expedition wasn't going to "bust" for the boys were safely aboard the Princess Norah bound for Ketchikan.

The boys—Bill Thomas, Jim Williams, John Hoffman and Art Merriman—each 17 years of age, intend to spend a few days in the Alaskan city before returning to Prince Rupert to start the return trip home. They reported the greatest difficulty on the trip was contending with flat tires. They have collected a grand total of nine so far.

The trip has been wonderful, the boys say, despite the discouraging and contradictory information they received at some points along the way. Equipped with a camp outfit the lads sleep in the open and do their own cooking.
