TO SCOUT JAMBOREE WITH BRAIDS—Boy Scout Earl Person, a Blackfoot Indian from Montana, and wearing braids, partakes of some milk as he waits to board the U.S. transport general, C. H. Muir, at Staten Island, New York, with other scouts from all parts of the United States. They are en route to the Boy Scout world jamboree at Moisson, France.

WANT REPAIRS TO SEAL COVE CIRCLE MADE

Need for improvements to Seal Cove Circle, which is almost impassable to traffic in parts, was pointed out to city council last night in a petition signed by 22 property owners on that east-end street, and was championed by Alderman Casey who moved that it be referred to the board of works for action.

Alderman Casey termed the street "dangerous and almost impassable" and referred to it as an important artery that receives a lot of traffic. "It should be given immediate attention," he declared.

Board of Works Chairman Alderman McKay declared the job to be "a lot bigger one than merely throwing rock and gravel on it" and asked that a survey of the road be made before repair work is begun.

Council was informed by Mayor Arnold that the City Engineer has already dumped rock and earth from the Third Avenue repair work on the Sixth Avenue approach to the Seal Cove Circle, which, she said, was in such bad shape that city garbage trucks had almost got bogged down.

POLICE FINES DROP SHARPLY

Prince Rupert was obviously a more orderly city in July than it was in June, if the monthly total of police court fines can be taken as the gauge of conduct. The fine total tumbled from a 12-month peak of $1,787 in June to a trifling $453 last month. However, this may be another indication of a growing sense of order since the war.

This indication is based on a survey of fine totals for the first seven months of 1944, 1945, 1946 and 1947. Seven-month total in 1944 was $13,044, for 1945, $8,151, for 1946, $9,201, and for 1947, $4,827.

This decrease over a four-year period cannot be altogether explained by a mellowing of the magistrate's heart because fine punishments are set by statute, although room is allowed for magisterial discreteion.

Figures for the July police fines came from the monthly report of police Sgt. L. A. N. Potterton to city council, and showed that the total of $453 resulted from 47 convictions on charges laid mainly under the Government Liquor Act and Indian Act.

Sgt. Potterton's report listed monetary losses for the month from various complaints as $657, of which $50 was recovered. Among miscellaneous duties of the force were the recovery of three stolen bicycles, finding of three lost infants, and securing of 17 business premises which were found unlocked.

Cost of maintaining the city jail for the month was $200.

Kaien Paradise

Prince Rupert sits on Kaien Isle, like a Queen upon her throne,
From childhood she has grown, going forward all the while,
The Gatway to the great northwest to everyone is shown,
On pretty Paradise of Kaien Isle.

The glorious sunset casts its hues on this pretty island site,
You cannot help but smile, you feel that life's worthwhile,
The Totem Poles are guarding o'er your future day and night,
On pretty Paradise of Kaien Isle.
