NO KNOWLEDGE OF OUTBREAK

Local public health and Indian health services today disclaimed any knowledge of outbreaks in this area which would necessitate the rushing of medical supplies to Prince Rupert. An explanation given at the Indian Health Service office was that they were expecting a quantity of whooping cough and diphtheria serums for their routine immunization work. However, neither they nor the Prince Rupert Health Unit could give any lead as to the need for "rushing medical supplies" as Vancouver reports have suggested.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove white marks from furniture?
A. Spread a thick coating of vaseline jelly over the white spots. Allow to remain on the spot for 48 hours or more. Wipe off the jelly and the white spots will have disappeared if they are only on the surface.

Q. How can I remove the taste of scorched food?
A. If food becomes scorched, remove the cover immediately and place the pan in a vessel of cold water. Allow it to remain for 15 to 20 minutes and the scorched taste will disappear.

Q. How can I improve the complexion?
A. Decided improvement in the complexion is often noticed within a few weeks if a quart of buttermilk is taken daily.

'SHE' WILL MAKE GOOD PET FOR SOME FAMILY

She stands about two feet high, has a tawny coat and an intelligent face and it looks as if she is going to be shot unless someone claims her soon. The police don't want to do it to this nameless lady—for she obviously is a lady even though she is in jail—but they can't go on feeding her forever. "She" is a female police dog, a good one, too, quiet, alert and gentle. She has no pockets to carry her pedigree in but her looks and bearing indicate a thoroughbred. She's got the jailhouse blues.

She was picked up a week ago—her misdemeanor, vagrancy. During that time, the police but they know the time must have become attached to her come when she will have to be disposed of. Meanwhile, she lives in the police office, getting occasional exercise in the enclosed revolver range. The prisoners feed her scraps.

Solution to the difficulty, according to Constable Alex Davidson, is for some one to come and get her—to give her a good home.

"She is a good, gentle dog, about a year old," said Constable Davidson. "She would make someone a good pet. Anyone who can give her a good home is welcome to come and get her."

Named Instructor In Safe Driving

Peter D. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Allen of this city, is expected to be appointed safe driving instructor at the naval dockyard at Esquimalt. The appointment is to be made in connection with a general program throughout Canada of instructing the Dominion's sailors, soldiers and airmen in safe driving.

Scottish Seaweed Draws Interest

LONDON—The Scottish Seaweed Research Association has expanded its operations by opening new headquarters at Inveresk Gate, Musselburgh. Here, inquiries will be directed to discover the food value and digestibility of seaweed as fodder for sheep, pigs and poultry, and usefulness of seaweed as a fertilizer.

IPSWICH, Eng. —Centre of an argument caused by his green trousers, yellow-and-red tie and light fawn coat, James Lynch was bound over for 12 months for disturbing the peace.

AWAITS WORD OF HUSBAND'S FATE—Sitting beside a radio in her Oakland, Calif., home, Mrs. James A. Kaye anxiously awaits news of her husband on the ill-fated army transport Clarksdale Victory. The ship broke in half off the rocky coast of British Columbia. The Coast Guard reported that all but four of the 51-man crew probably had drowned. She hoped her husband was a survivor.

IGNORANCE IS BLISS NEW CASTLE, Australia, —When this city flew hundreds of borrowed ships' flags to celebrate its 150th anniversary, there unwittingly appeared some startling messages in international code. One firm signalled "I am out of control," another warned "Do not approach," while others flew messages that modestly declines to mention.
