SHIP OF HOPE—New Canadians to the number of 800, displaced persons and other immigrants will arrive in this country with each voyage of the diesel-electric liner Beaverbrae, seen above (left) alongside her refitting berth at Sorel, Que., when she enters service early in 1948. Formerly the German vessel Huascarán of the Hamburg-Amerika Line, she was captured virtually undamaged by Allied forces in a Norwegian fjord, where she had acted as repair and "mother" ship to U-boats seeking their toll of shipping in the North Atlantic, and handed over to Canada as part reparations payment. Master of the Beaverbrae is Captain G. O. Baugh, O.B.E., R.D., seen at right in the ship's wheelhouse holding a veteran of the Battle of the Atlantic and quite possibly during the war tangled with some submarines which had been based alongside his new command. The blackboard for marking bilge and water tank soundings, seen behind the captain, still carries its German marking. (Canadian Pacific Photos.)

The child is the grandson of Earl and Lady Mountbatten, uncle and aunt of the prince. Mountbatten is seen peering over the shoulder of Lady Brabourne at his godson.
