VANCOUVER IS FAVORED

WINNIPEG, ☉—A powerful Vancouver St. Andrew's eleven is the choice of the west to emerge with the Canadian soccer football championship play-offs which open here Saturday with Winnipeg Scottish meeting Fort William Legion in a best-of-three first-round series.

The Pacific Coast champions are only one of four western teams in the running—Edmonton's North Side Legion is the other—but most fans have just about conceded them the Dominion Football Association trophy in succession to British Columbia Radials who took it in 1939.

The trophy was not at stake during the war although unofficial Canadian champions were declared.

Scottish, Connaught Cup winners of 1915—the trophy then was emblematic of the Canadian title—but seldom a threat since are slight favorites over the Lakehead team which had an up-and-down career against the Port Arthur team, its only rival in the new Ontario Football Association this year.

The Legion was beaten decisively by Port Arthur during league play and lost the first game of the challenge cup series only to sweep the next six. Like Scottish, which is led by "Legs" Fraser of hockey fame and Midge Pennington, the Legion has a home-bred aggregation with Jack McLeod, Bill Nesbit, Scotty Stewart and Art Goodman, who played in the Dominion final against Toronto last year the best known.

Edmonton Legion, which meets the survivor of the Winnipeg-Fort William series, has an experienced squad with two former R.A.F. men and old country players, Centre Dave Gillings and Forward Bill Thomas, to set the pace. It is regarded as a dark horse with at least an even chance of upsetting either the Legion or Scottish.

However, the average western fan will say that St. Andrew's,

SAVOY WINS OVER MOOSE

Savoy hung a 10 to 5 defeat on the Moose men when the two teams tangled Sunday afternoon in the season's last game before the play-off.

Up to the bottom half of the fifth inning the lodge men looked as good as the hotel men but when Savoy got their turn to swing the ash, six men managed to do the circuit.

First run of the game was scored by Foster in the second inning. He earned first, was forced to second by Gurvich who was struck by one of Rosedale's pitches, stole third and came home on catcher Abel's overthrow to third.

Moose evened the score in the third when Rosedale got a single, moved to second on a play that put McNeil out at first, did a steal to third and went over the plate when Lindsay scooped up Maundrell's effort and overthrew to first.

Savoy got their second tally in the last of the fourth. Lindsay whammed out a base hit and Pavlikis, running for him, beat the play to second when Linney gathered Foster's fielder's choice and tried for a double. Failing to nail Pavlikis, Dahl, at second, winged the ball down to first but his wide pitch made Foster safe and put Pavlikis on third. A timely hit by Gurvich brought Pavlikis over the plate.

McNeil tied up the score again when he went around on errors. Scherk stopped McNeil's drive but his wild throw to first let the runner make second. Attempting to cut off McNeil's steal to third Postuk whipped the ball down third, Arney failed to snag it and McNeil galloped home.

Simundson started the slaughter in the last of the fifth when he was given first after being hit by a pitched ball and went to third on Pavlikis' two-bagger rated the best Vancouver team since the days of Westminster Royals, despite the departure of left-half Jackie Whent to play for Brighton and Hove Albion in England, is head-and-shoulders above any other squad.

The team is composed largely of veterans and all but one are Vancouver-born with Goalie Bob Newbold, Centre Frank Ambler and Right-back Earling Storness the brightest lights.

The survivor of the Fort William-Winnipeg-Edmonton round has one consolation. It goes east to play the Ontario-Quebec champions with the winner meeting St. Andrews in the final at Vancouver.

Rosedale then filled the bases by walking Lindsay, Foster, next up, drilled one down first where McNeil grabbed it and played home but failed to catch Simundson. Pavlikis walked over the plate when Rosedale issued a free pass to Scherk and forced a run in. Postuk slashed out a hit that brought in Forman, running for Lindsay, and Foster. Forman's single brought Scherk home and Postuk got in on McNeil's overthrow to third.

In the sixth Moose tried hard to win back some of the lost ground but only McKinnon, Kurzdziel and Linney made the tour. Savoy picked up two more runs in the sixth when Simundson and Lindsay got all the way around.

Maundrell took over the Moose mound in the seventh and struck out three while only issuing one free pass. Alex Bill took over the pitching duties from Lindsay in the first of the eighth and Benny Winkle called the game on account of rain as soon as the third Moose man fielded out.
