TOPS LEAGUE WITH BOWLING SCORE OF 404

Linda Erickson of the Savoy Swingers bowled a crashing 404 to win top individual honors in this week's Ladies' Five Pin League, a score that has rarely been duplicated in any league in the city this season. Despite her virtuosity, however, Savoys were defeated by Sweet Sixteen 3-0.

Top score for three games was won by Elsie Morse of Rosa Lees, who bowled 162, 274 and 290, totalling 736 and averaging 242, a standing acceptable even in the men's league, which incidentally do not always out-class the ladies.

Six of the 20 teams in the league won clear victories. Here are the team results.:

Big Sisters 3, Comets 0.
Westview 3, Mansons 0.
Orange 3, Coasters 0.
Sweet Sixteen 3, Toilers 0.
Rosa Lee 3, Savoy Swingers 0.
Watts & Nickerson 3, Miller Bay 0.
Cosmos 2, Variety 1.
Lucky Strikes 2, Blowers 1.
Annettes 2, Moose 1.
Scuby's 2, Bankers 1.

Savoy Wins Close Game

Squeezed Out Narrow Victory Over Brownwoods—High School Wins and Loses

Battling furiously all the way Savoy hammered out a narrow 57 to 52 victory over a fighting Brownwoods squad in the Senior League basketball tilt on Saturday night down at the Civic Centre gym. It was one of the roughest melon-tossing affairs this season although only twenty-six personal fouls were dished out by Referees Fred Calderone and Alex Bill, thirteen against each squad.

The game started out with a fine display of team play but as play progressed things began to liven up and by the end of the match it was a near riot. Forman of Brownwoods and Arney of Savoy climaxed the play when each were tossed out in the closing seconds. This was the first instance this season of referee's decisions banishing players for flagrant fouling.

Ted Arney was the spearhead that led the hotelmen on to victory, dropping in 24 points to lead the scoring for the night. Mel Thompson was the shooting eye for Brownwoods with 13 well-earned counters.

At the half Savoy managed to hold on to a narrow lead with the score standing at 34 and 30. In the third frame came Brownwoods downfall when the scoring was 13 points for Savoy and 8 for the shoemen. Brownwoods battled hard to overcome their rivals'5 lead but fell short as time ran out on them.

Savoy—J. Davies 6, M. Holkestad 5, R. Holkestad 11, D. Murray 2, T. Arney 24, H. Morgan 4, S. Dominato 5, McClymont, Hougan, Alexander.

Brownwoods—V. Ciccone 6, D. Hartwig 9, E. Pierce, B. Gurvich, J. Forman 10, E. Ciccone 12, M. Thompson 13, B. Pettenuzzo 2.

RAINMAKERS STILL WINNING

The Bo-Me-Hi Rainmakers continued their Intermediate League winning streak by downing a hard working Morgan's aggregation by a 53 to 30 score. This game was never in doubt as the students snatched an early lead and just kept adding to it. Jim Flaten of the green and gold squad bounced 16 markers from the backboards to lead the scoring spree in the tussle.

Moving mightily down the floor in their new uniforms of gold and green, the campus boys had the time of their lives but Morgan's never gave up the fight and were driving right through until the final whistle.

The first frame was disastrous for Morgan's as the Rainmakers romped through for a 16-4 lead at the end of the first quarter. Again in the second stanza Bo-Me-Hi drove furiously through the weak defense of the clothiers to close up the first half out in front 26-8. In the last half Morgan's bega to get some drive into their offensive in 12 points but still the students marched on, sweeping up the floor for their last period drive which sewed the game up tight.

The students got a little of that school spirit into the game when three lovely cheer queens led part of the student body in some spirited yells for the old alma mater.

Bo-Me-Hi—Shier 19, Lavigne 9, Flaten 16, Boulter 4, Carlson, Seberk 2, Davidson 1, Olsen, Spring 9.

Morgan's—Watson 8, Scharff 6, Jones 3, Hill, Lien 1, Rothwell, Carlson 6, Webster 2, Isaac 4.

LAST-MINUTE DRIVE WINS

Stone's had to put on a lively last quarter drive before the High School Juniors bowed down to defeat by a low score of 19 to 14. It was a close checking game right through to the last frame when Bill McChesney burst out with a 6-point scoring spree on some nice breakaways to put the House of Stone in the lead.

Stone's sky high guards were given plenty of work to do as the students from Junior H. fired away at the rim—but the ball just would not stay in where it was supposed to. These two Junior squads put on a fine display for an eye-opener to the other two scrimmages on Saturday.

Stone's—Sharon 2 Walsh, McChesney 6, Christoff 2, Jones 4, Holt, Dumas 4, Carlson, Johnson.

Hi School—Johnson, Smith 3, Webber 4, Prevost 2, Jeffries, Weiss 2, Simondson 3 Black, Jordan, Hamilton.
