BISHOP RETURNS FROM NORTH TRIP

The Rt. Rev. J. B. Gibson, D. after an absence of three months. While away he visited the diocese of Yukon, holding confirmations and visiting outlying missions. While at Dawson he was guest speaker at a dinner given by the citizens of that famous northern city.

Before proceeding down the Alaska Highway by bus he flew to Atlin, B.C., the most northern mission of his own diocese It took three days to travel the Alaska Highway to Fort St. John. The road was good and the scenery in places not to be for-Confirmations and services were held throughout the Peace River Block during August.

In September the Bishop attended the House of Bishops and the Electoral College which met in Saskatoon for the purpose of nominating and electing a Primate of the Church of England n Canada. From there he returned to Kitwanga and Kit- ties during the previous year, of Trade to help put some life wancool. October saw him at Burns Lake, Endako and Fraser Lake for Harvest Thanksgiving services at which he was the special preacher. He then travelled west as far as Smithers to attend a meeting of the Hazelton Deanery of which the Rev. J. M. McCormick of Vanderhoof, rural dean, was chairman.

R. H. Belcher, one of the earliest Klondyke pioneers and well known to every resident of the Yukon as "Uncle" Belcher, was a visitor in the city. Mr. Belcher was a resident of Edmonton. He enjoyed renewing acquaintances with many Klondyke friends in Prince Rupert.

A publisher at Terrace planned to start publication of a weekly newspaper to be known as the Skeena Record.

D. McLeod, chief accountant for Foley, Welch and Stewart Construction Co., arrived in the city from the East.

October 11, 1922

City Council discussed a report of the building commission on the establishment of fire limits within the city but arrived at no conclusion. It was recommended that the city be divided into three sections with restrictions suitable to each area.

A Bulkley Valley livestock raiser declared that the meat produced in that area was of such high quality that Prince Rupert butchers did not care to handle
