SAMUEL BEATON PASSES AWAY

Samuel Joseph Beaton, a resident of Prince Rupert for 30 years and a former railway employee, died last night enroute to Prince Rupert General Hospital from the Pioneer Home, where he had been living for the last week.

Born in Prince Edward Island in 1868, he came to Prince Rupert in 1917 and was employed for a number of years by the bridge and building department of Canadian National Railways.

During his later years he lived in a cabin near the grain elevator. He entered the Pioneer Home six days ago.
He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Theresa Bradley of Charlottetown.
