

BIG TIME AT PARISH HALL

Colorful Hallowe'en Affair on Friday Night

In a hay-strewn, barn-like atmosphere, made even more holiday-like by gay orange and black streamers and cats and witches, nearly 80 young people, members and guests of the St. Peter's Young Peoples' Association, with members of the United Church Young Peoples' group as guests of honor, gathered in St. Peter's Hall Friday evening for a "super-duper" Hallowe'en party that will be remembered by the youngsters for a long time to come.

The evening began with the Grand March, for which boys and girls were paired off by cards handed them upon arrival. Lil Abner paired off with Daisy May, Josephine with Napoleon, Lord Plushbottom with Emmy, and so on. Costumes were judged by the St. Peter's group's director, Mrs. Helen Marchildon, and Archdeacon E. Hodson, who agreed that Dick Large and Shirley Treemer wore the funniest costumes. The winners were each presented with an handkerchief with a specially embroidered "YPA" in one corner, which had been made by the girls of the group.

Square dancing and special Hallowe'en novelty dances took up most of the evening, except for an interruption at 10 o'clock for the serving of refreshments, followed by a fireworks display for which everyone swarmed outside. A novel innovation was introduced to the party in the choosing of a "King and Queen of the Ball." Albert Eyoifson, president of the United Church group, and Donna Kerrighan, secretary of the St. Peter's group, won these distinctions. Focal point of much admiration were three life sized drawings of Lil Abner, Daisy Mae and Moonbeam McSwine, which adorned the walls. These were drawn by the St. Peter's group's president, Diane Kennedy.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

From bright and early in the morning until midnight, Sunday was a busy day at the Canadian National dock. No less than five coasting vessels called during the night. First to arrive at 8:30 a. m. was the Union Steamship Co.'s Chilcotin, Capt. Harry McLean, from Petersburg, Wrangell and Ketchikan, with no less than sixty-one passengers added to which were twenty or more from here which made her a pretty full ship when she sailed at 2 p. m. for Vancouver. At 9:30, C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. P. L. Leslie, arrived from Vancouver with 71 passengers, sailing at 11:30 a. m. for Skagway and Alaska ports whence she will return here on Wednesday afternoon southbound. Union steamer Cassiar, Capt. Alf Aspinall, arrived in port at 12 noon from her Massett Inlet calls, sailing at 12 midnight for Vancouver via south Queen Charlotte Island points. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon the Northland Transportation Co.'s big freighter, Capt. Larry Clark Grummit Reefer arrived from Alaska, discharging six carloads of fish here from Pelican for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways before sailing at 7 p.m. for Tacoma with timber and more fish from Alaska. Last ship of the day to arrive was Union steamer Coquitlam, Capt. John Boden, which got in at 5:30 from Vancouver and way-points, sailing at midnight for Alice Arm, Stewart and other northern points whence she will be back here again tomorrow southbound.

HONORED ON RETIREMENT

A delightful surprise party was staged on Friday by the shipwrights of the Prince Rupert dry dock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gillis, 330 Seventh Avenue West, on the occasion of the birthday and retirement of Mr. Gillis from the dry dock after a service of 20 years.

On behalf of the shipwright department, Robert Cameron, shipyard superintendent, presented Mr. Gillis with a watch chain with accessories and a lighter, both suitably engraved, and to Mrs. Gillis a lovely moonstone brooch and earring set. Also on behalf of the dry dock employees, Mr. Cameron presented Mr. Gillis with a pen and pencil set and wallet.

A delightful time was enjoyed by all with singing and old time dances and delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. L. Halcrow, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gillis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Feasby, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pederson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Wide, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mattson, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Gillis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Smith, Miss Evelyn Macdonald, and Messrs. D. McRae, J. A. McRae, J. McGreish, J. Stewart, Allan Gillis.

T.B. SEAL DRIVE COMING OF AGE

Larger Committee Than Usual to Conduct Christmas Seal Campaign

A somewhat larger committee than usual has been organized to take over the Christmas Seal sale in Prince Rupert this year, it was announced last evening by the chairman, P. LeRoss.

"This is the twenty-first anniversary of the seal sale in Canada," Mr. LeRoss stated, "and we must try to make it noteworthy. We must celebrate our majority by a willingness to shoulder responsibilities and to strike out in a vigorous fashion against tuberculosis."

The first nation-wide Christmas Seal sale was held in Canada in the year 1927, Mr. LeRoss recalled. At that time TB took a toll of 81.7 per 100,000 of the population. The death rate since then has been cut to 45, a decrease of 45 per cent. There is still, however, much to be done. From now on the gains are
