Seniors Provide Thriller Basketball Season Starts

Junior League—65 Taxi 32, High School 17
Intermediate—Booth Memorial High 25, Fashion Footwear 15
Senior—Savoys 39, Brownwoods 38

Featuring a tightly contested Senior tussle, the basketball season got off to a good start on Saturday evening to a near capacity house. Intermediate and Junior League also provided interesting although not as close games.

Prior to the start of the Bo-Me-Hi-Fashion Footwear intermediate game T. Norton Young announced that the Civic Centre Good Sportsman-ship Trophy, which had been won by the late Bobby Houston, had been given to Mrs. Houston and that another one would be put up called the Bobby Houston Memorial Good Sportsman-ship Trophy.

Sergeant Potterton officially started the season by tossing up the ball at the start of the Bo-Me-Hi vs Fashion Footwear game. The score was 10-3 in favor of the innkeepers. At the half it was 21-15. It was in the third quarter that the Brownwoods crept up on the Hotelmen. This period the score stood 29-26 and it was only time that beat the shoe merchants. Final score was 39-38.

The whistle blotted out 27 fouls in this contest. There were 14 called on the Brownwoods and 13 were called on the Savoys.

In The Basket...

All indications point to the 65 Taxi lads to be favorites to cop the Junior crown this winter. They are being coached by Boyo Gurvich; although the Junior students will give a better account of themselves as the season progresses. J. Evans is looking after the Junior High.

Playing together Saturday night for the first time the Fashion Footwear put up a good game against the Rainmakers. Siatta and Arnsten will be the ones to watch on this team. Sev Dominato is doing the brain-trusting from the bench.

Rainmakers turned in their usual performance with Platen Lavigne and D. Scherk as the outstanding players. Alex Bill is doing the coaching and he claims by the end of the first half this team should be as good as last year.

The Senior game started out a fast wide open game but, by the last quarter, it had slowed up as the boys are not exactly in shape as yet. Davey Murray
