

PRINCE RUPERT YEARS AGO

October 9, 1912
Alex Stowell, who had been on the staff of the Bank of Montreal, resigned and accepted a position with the Mack Realty Co. Mr. Stowell came to Prince Rupert from England and was a non-commissioned officer in the Earl Grey Rifles.

Warren Kissick, one of the pioneer real estate men of the city, associated with the firm of Pattullo and Radford, returned on the Prince George from an extended visit to his former home in Nova Scotia.

Miss Jessie Unwin, for some time on the staff of the City Hall in the office of Clerk Woods, after being on vacation for some weeks, returned from Vancouver on the Prince George.

October 9, 1922
The Vancouver Sun editorially attacked the appointment of Fred Dawson as a director of the Canadian National Railways. "Prince Rupert's population is 5,000 and Vancouver's is 250,000," it stated. "C.N.R. revenue is 50 times greater at Vancouver and Vancouver pays 100 times more in taxes to make good C. N. R. deficits. The chances are that any ability Mr. Dawson may have will be offset by his allegiance and obligations to Prince Rupert."

A meeting of local fishermen urged that the government impose a tax of one cent a pound on American fish entering Canada in reprisal for a tax of ten cents a pound which the American government had imposed on Canadian fish entering the U.S.

Mayor H. B. Rochester and City Treasurer W. D. Van were at Kamloops attending the annual convention of the Union of B.C. Municipalities.

BUSH PILOT PROSPECTING

Alaskan bush pilot and explorer, E. B. Joiner, plans to do some prospecting in northern B. C. as well as in the Yukon, before winter closes in. He returned recently from the Yukon after delivering a new plane there. He is now returning by air to his home in Candle (Alaska) by way of Central British Columbia, and will devote part of the time to looking around and seeing what may develop. He says times continue active in the north.

Moustaches Are Popular Again

OTTAWA—Moustaches, in military circles, are returning. Soldiers, stationed in various parts of Canada, are blossoming out with hirsute adornment of various shapes sizes and colors. Moustaches were customary in Great War I. Some, it is said, are even claiming affiliation with the famous "Handlebar Club" overseas.

PUBLICIZING P.R. HIGHWAY

In its campaign for publicizing of the existence of the trans-provincial highway with its coast terminus at Prince Rupert, the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce has received assurance of full publicity from the Government Travel Bureau at Victoria and the Motor Dealers' Association of Vancouver. Writing to the Chamber, both bodies have made suggestions as to quarters which might be contacted in order to further disseminate the information that the road is open and being used.

The Government Travel Bureau says that it has from time to time advised customs offices and automobile associations and in other ways has endeavored to assist in the movement of automobile traffic in this direction. Organizations in Washington, Oregon and California which should be got in touch with are suggested.
