

Hawaiian Holiday Possible By Air

HONOLULU — People with only two weeks vacation—no matter whether they live in New England or Florida—can spend it on any one of the Hawaiian Islands and have plenty of time for rest and recreation, and at the same time enjoy events and festivals scheduled for the year round, for visitors. Air travel has made this possible.

GYRO EVENTS NEXT MONTH

Prince Rupert Gyro Club is preparing for the renewal this month of two events which proved very popular last fall. One is the annual Apple Day when members of the club, headed by W. M. Watts, J. T. Harvey, W. D. Lambie, W. J. Scott, Robert Parker and T. H. Wilford, will take to the streets to sell the luscious fruit for the benefit of the club's playground work. The other event will be the Hallowe'en Hoedown on October 31 which has long been a well-patronized institution of the club and of which A. J. Dominato is to be the chairman next year. These events were reported upon among other business at the weekly luncheon of the club yesterday when Past President W. D. Lambie was in the chair in the absence of President C. G. Ham.

CHILD BURIED AT KITWANGA

KITWANGA—Condolences of the community were expressed here at the week-end to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sinclair at the funeral of their eight-year old daughter, Mae, who died at Wrinch Memorial Hospital, Hazelton, on October 2. The funeral was held Saturday.

A farewell service was held at the Sinclair home prior to the funeral, which was held at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Kitwanga. Portions of the services were conducted by Capt. Edward Benson, Capt. Solomon Bryant and Capt. Edward Tait, all of the Church Army. Rev. J. Hayhurst officiated at the funeral. Chiefs Fred Johnson, W. B. Morgan and George H. Moore and Philip Ryan, Edward Tait and Mrs. Sarah Benson, all of Kitwanga, expressed sympathy in speeches, as did Chief Ernest Smith of Kitwancool.

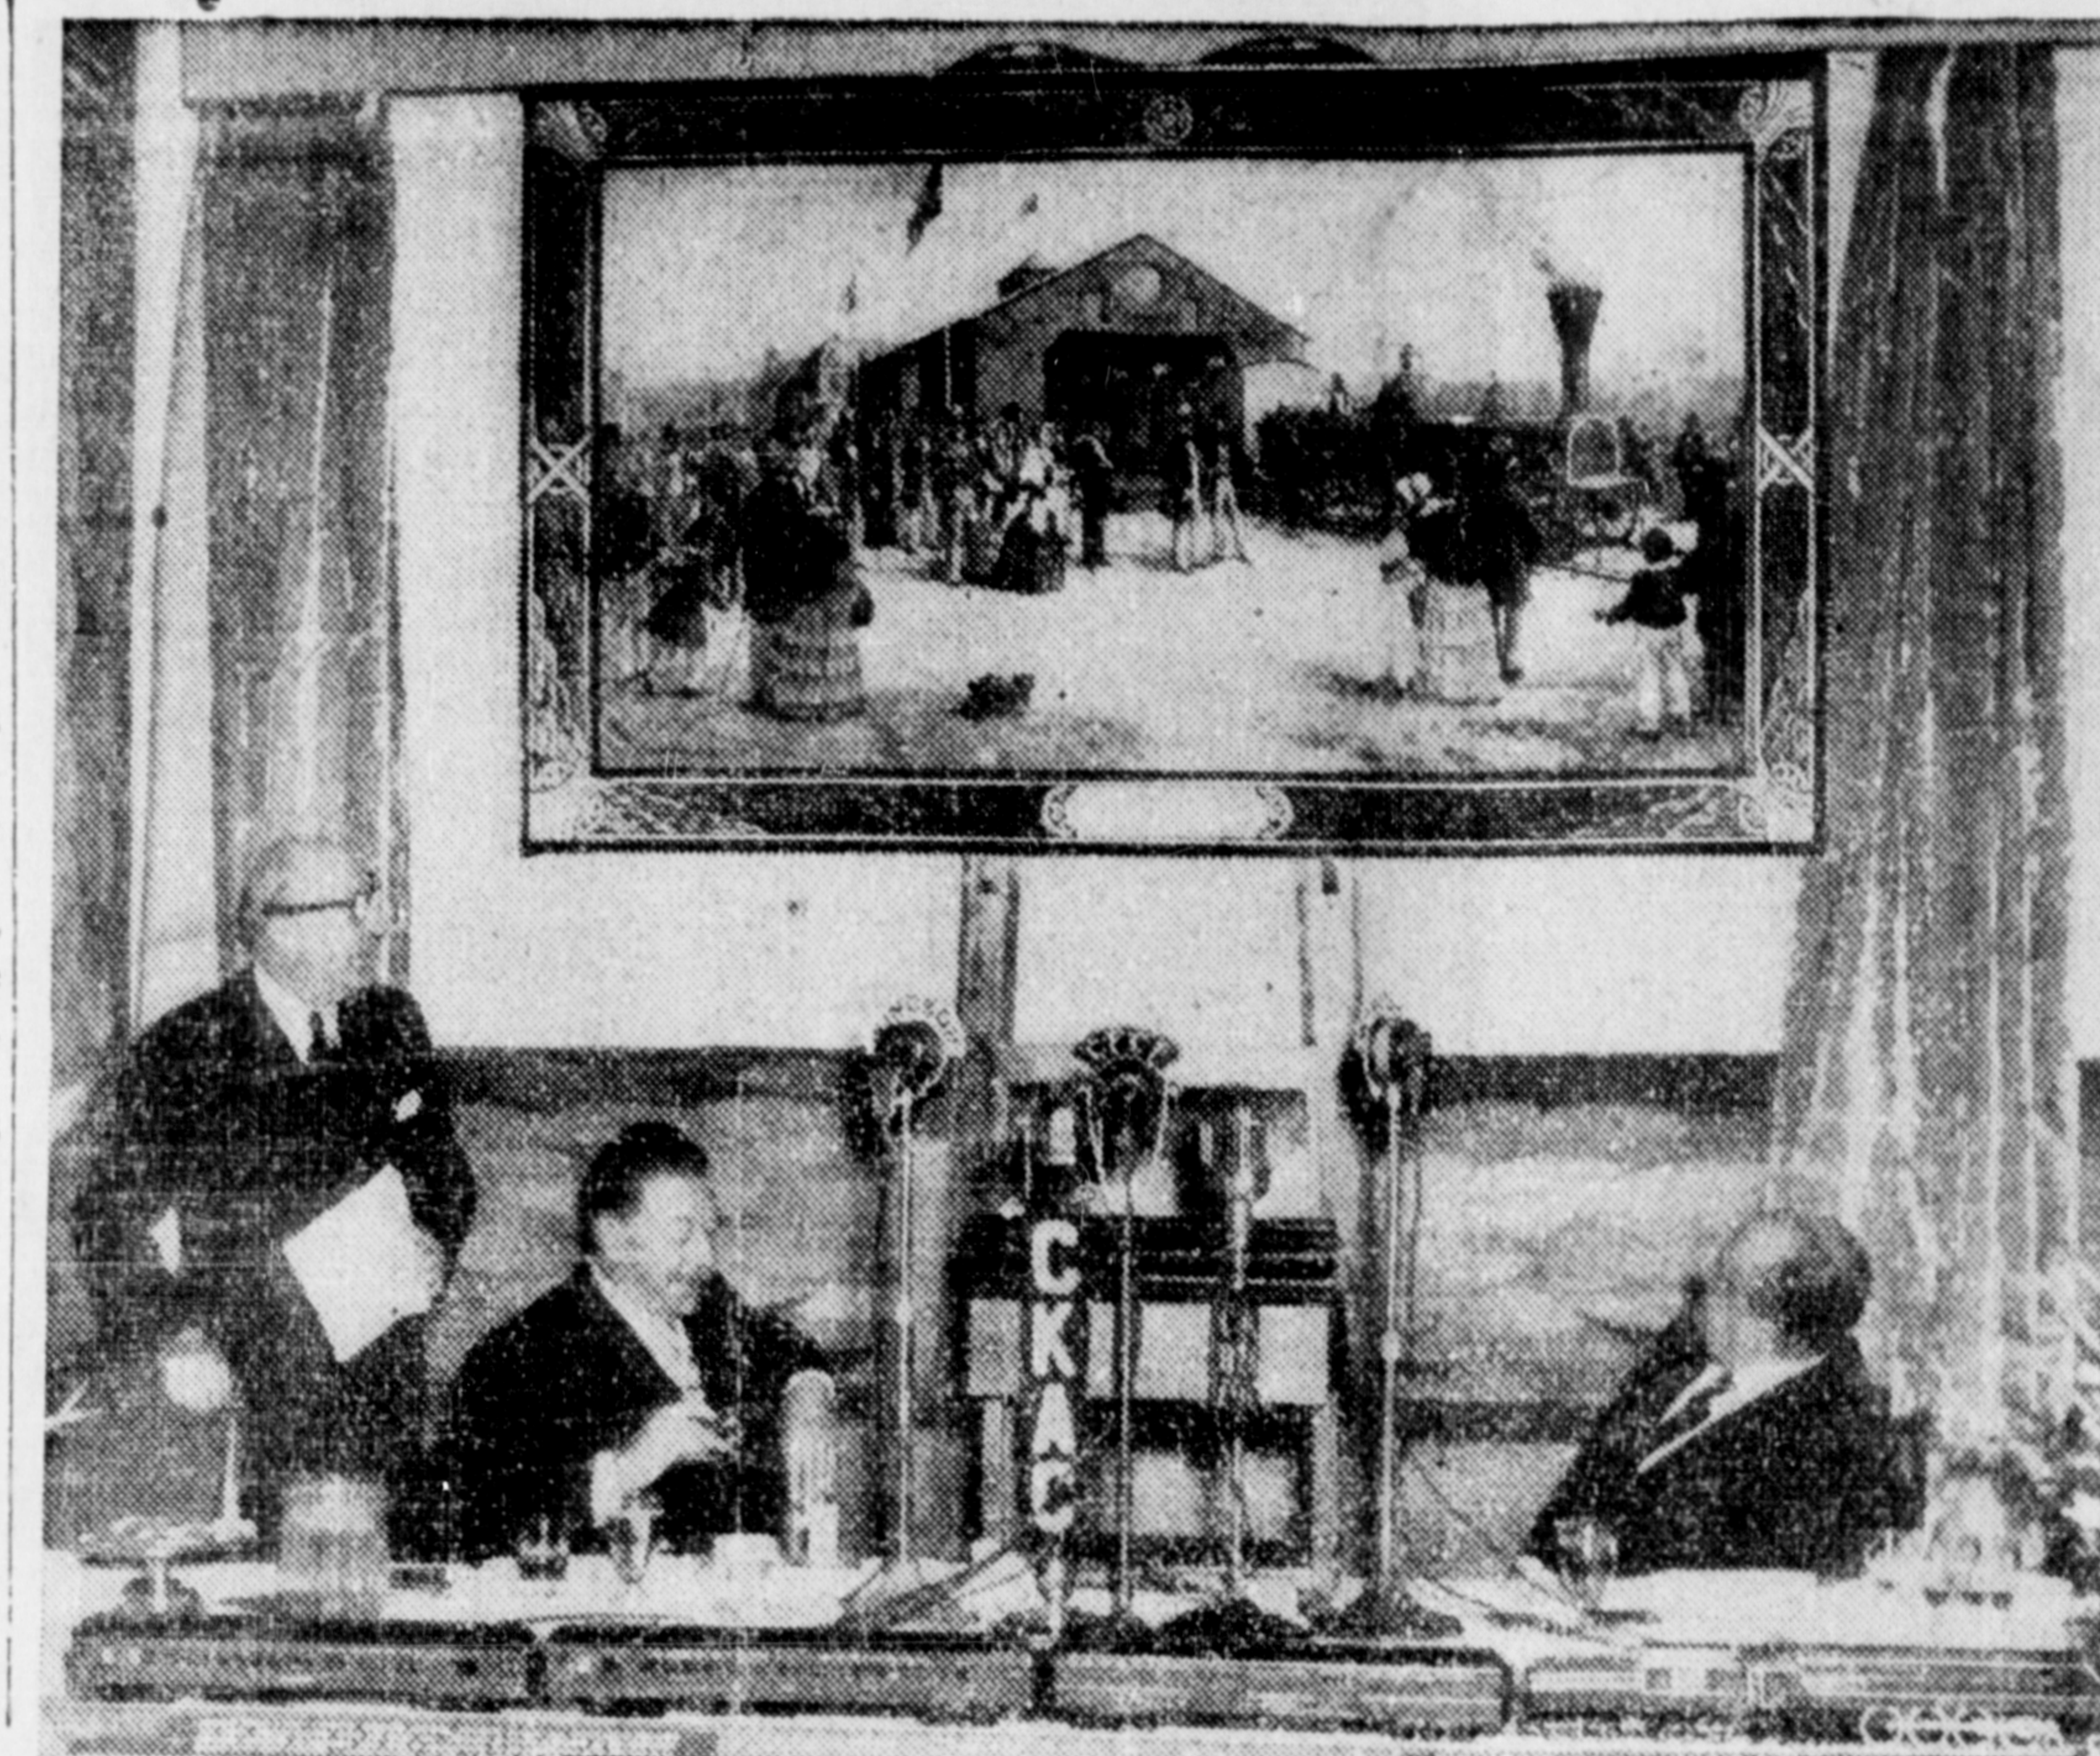

Edward Benson was organist during the service.

Pallbearers were Harold Daniels, Edward Benson, Richard Fowler and George Daniels.

PENSION CUT IS PROTESTED

JUNEAU—Cash Cole, a former auditor and legislator, has put in a strong plea about old age pensions being cut to $40 a month. "It is," he says, "nonsense to expect our indigent pioneers to live on such payments. It is simply impossible. In the end it will so injure their health that much greater expense for hospital treatment will result over what the legislators will save now."

A CENTURY BEGINS TO ROLL—Commemorating the historic day 100 years ago when railway service was inaugurated on the Island of Montreal, R. C. Vaughan, C.M.G., president, Canadian National Railways, presents to the City of Montreal an oil painting by the well known Canadian artist, A. Sherriff Scott, R.C.A. On Mr. Vaughan's left are His Excellency, Viscount Alexander, Governor-General of Canada, and Mayor Camillien Houde, O.B.E. The table decoration, in sharp contrast with the historic scene in the painting, is a model of a modern CNR train.

Costly Gifts Are Offered Royal Couple

By NORMAN CRIBBINS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON—Princess Elizabeth has taken a firm stand against publishing lists of wedding gifts too far ahead of the Royal Wedding on November 20.

"Her Highness is most anxious not to embarrass those who have not yet been able to offer gifts," an official at Buckingham Palace said. "She has therefore decided that no list shall be issued until a short time before the wedding."

It was also stated that no invitations to the wedding have yet been sent out though some of the palace staff are working overtime on the guest list.

As Westminster Abbey holds no more than 2,000 people, many eligible guests will have to be eliminated. These will be entertained by the King and Queen at an afternoon party in St. James' Palace on November 17 when the wedding gifts will be viewed. The following evening there will be a pre-wedding party at Buckingham Palace.

Meanwhile, offers of costly gifts continue to reach the Princess from all parts of the world. From Capetown she will receive a set of early Georgian Sheffield plate candelabra; from Victoria, Australia, a $2,400 jewel case made of Victorian fine gold engraved with the coat of arms of Victoria.

OTHER GIFTS

President and Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek will present the royal couple with a 200-piece dinner service specially ordered from Kingtechen, world-famous chinaware-producing centre.

The diplomatic corps numbering 48 are combining to give the Princess a fitted travelling case containing silver-gilt bottles each bearing the initial E surmounted by a Royal crown. Costing $4,000, the set will be presented by Senor de Aragao, Brazilian ambassador.

While the British Army's gift plan is still under consideration, the Royal Navy and Royal Air Force have fixed their subscriptions at half-a-crown (50 cents) for officers and sixpence for ratings. Officers and ratings of the Royal Indian and Royal Pakistan navies will share the cost of the gift with British and Australian sailors.

Lancashire folk are being asked to donate one shilling each towards the purchase of a set of period furniture for a "Lancashire Room" in the Princess's apartments. Hucknall, Nottinghamshire craftsmen, are making her one of their famous silk Shetland shawls.

Lieut. Mountbatten has intimated that his gifts to the eight bridesmaids will be small pieces of diamond-set jewelry, but the nature of his gift to the bride is not yet known.

BIG GORILLA NOT POPULAR

Vancouver People Did Not Relish Presence of Tangola

Vancouver people have precious little use for gorillas—and least of all for "Tangola" the big fellow that spent a while as part of a tent show at Prince Rupert and then was shipped south. He was taken to the home of E. C. Edwards, of Carolina Street, in Vancouver, who is known in carnival circles as "Alberta Slim."

"Tangola" was in a strong cage and due to be placed in the zoo at Stanley Park next day. But once the news got out neighbors raised Cain. A 325-pound gorilla was distinctly out of place as a member of the local social set. They protested again and again, and stared the burly boy from the Congo out of countenance. He paid no attention—just kept on eating bananas. But he stayed around until the following day although it was hard on the nerves of those next door.

Ancient Jap Sabre Preserved At R.M.C.

OTTAWA — Too valuable to beat into a ploughshare, a Japanese sabre, captured by the United States troops, has been presented to the Royal Military College at Kingston, Ont. The sword is a Samurai sabre made in the Kenmu era, 614 years ago. Its water tempered steel blade was forged by Kumimitsu, famed swordmaster of that time.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make a cement for pipe joints?

A. Mix 10 pounds of yellow ochre, four pounds of ground litharge, four pounds of whiting, one-half pound of hemp, cut up fine. Mix together with linseed to about the consistency of putty.

Q. How can I remove a rusty screw?

A. Heat a poker or spike red hot and apply it to the head of the screw that is rusty and obstinate. When the screw has become hot it can be removed very easily.

Q. How can I take away all dampness of rooms?

A. Place blocks of camphor in all corners and on shelves, replacing as they evaporate.

The tailoring in these suits is really smooth...

That's why I like BOND CLOTHES

says Eddie Allen, popular Canadian vocalist and accordionist who is heard every week, Monday through Friday, by many thousands of radio listeners!

"Versatility really counts when you're a radio artist. Versatility also counts when you're choosing a suit.

"My Bonsted suit not only looks smart but it feels comfortable and there's a colour and pattern to suit anyone's taste. When a Bond suit is made to your measure, it really is made to your measure. Bond stylists travel the continent to find what's new and what men like. And the men who do the actual tailoring on your suit have been practising their craft for more years than I can lay claim to.

"If you're looking for a good-looking suit that stands up well under hard wear, I'd suggest you try a Bond tailored-to-measure suit in Bonsted."
