DELEGATES ARE NAMED

George C. Mitchell, J. D. McRae, Robert McKay and H. F. Glassey, at a meeting last night, were elected as delegates to represent the Prince Rupert District Liberal Association at the provincial convention to be held next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in Vancouver when a new leader will be chosen to succeed Premier John Hart. E. T. Applewhaite may also be a delegate but had not definitely decided up to this morning. The delegates will leave here for Vancouver on the steamer Camosun next Sunday afternoon.

A resolutions committee headed by S. E. Parker, is now busy drawing up resolutions for presentation to the convention.

BASEBALL FILMS BEING PRESENTED

Of special interest to baseball players and fans will be depiction of the 1946 World Series baseball games on the screen of the Civic Centre auditorium on Wednesday evening. The film is in sound and gives an account of the epic series betwen St. Louis Cardinals and Boston Red Sox.

Narrated by veteran sportscaster Ted Husing, a film, "One Hundred Years of Baseball," is also to be shown. Baseball greats from early times in the game's history up to the present day will be shown. In recognition of the worthiness of the aims and objectives of the newly formed Prince Rupert Film Council, a portion of the collection taken will be allotted to the work of that organization.

SHORT SPORT

Joe Louis, a graceful, muscular Negro of 33, will make the twenty-fourth defence of his heavyweight champion this Friday night at Madison Square Garden against another Negro named Jersey Joe Walcott, of somewhat undistinguished ring record. Everything is against the fight. Promoter Mike Jacobs is sick in Florida and his assistants are charging the outrageous fee of $30 for a ringside seat. Walcott generally isn't considered a proper match for Louis and New York boxing circles are agitated by doubts arising from the recent Lamotta-Fox debacle. In fact, there seems to be nothing to recommend the affair except that Joe Louis will be making his first appearance in more than a year and, from the standpoint of the promoter, that the fans have been rushing to the box office.

Nobody admits to being much interested in whether Walcott can remain upright for four, six or even 15 rounds against the greatest fighter of the time, yet latest advices indicate that the gate will smash the all-time Garden record of $201,000 set in 1927 by Jack Delaney and Jimmy Maloney. The explanation seems to be that Louis, after holding the title for better than ten years, is talking seriously of retiring and a lot of fans are giving thought that they had better see him quick, if at all.

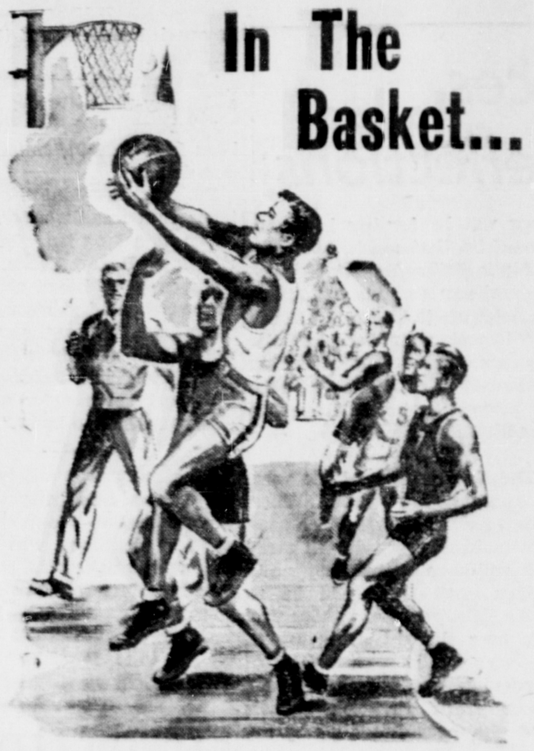
Louis expects to weigh in at about 210 for Walcott. That will be only about 13 pounds more than he scaled the night he knocked out Jimmy Braddock for the title in 1936. Walcott is said to be planning to step around Louis at a lively clip and pile up points with counter-punching, at which he is adept. Walcott, who also admits to 38 years, will come in at about 193. His supporters say that two things are for certain—that he isn't afraid of Louis and that he will not "die" before he reaches the ring, as several of Joe's so-called rivals have done.

LADIES' BOWLING LEAGUE SCHEDULE

December 2—Variety vs. Cosmos, Manson's vs. Bankers, Big Sisters vs. Comets; Toilers vs. Sweet Sixteen, Orange vs. Coasters.

December 4—Watts & Nickerson vs. Miller Bay, Lucky Strikes vs. Blowers, Annettes vs. Moose; Scuby's vs. Bankers, Savoy vs. Rosa Lees.

December 9—West View vs. Comets, Manson's vs. Sweet Sixteen, Savoy vs. Coasters; Toilers vs. Miller Bay, Orange vs. Blowers.



In The Basket...

Brownwoods take on Co-ops this evening. The former have had some stiff practices and they plan on giving the Co-ops a severe trouncing.

Fashion Footwear and Merchants tangle in the Intermediate game. This should be a fast, close and maybe somewhat rough game. Sev Dominato has retired from active playing to give his full time to his Shoe squad. After the showing Merchants made against Morgan's Sid Woodside is quite confident that his team should win.

65 Taxi will try and continue their winning streak at the expense of Gyros. The Cabmen have not lost a game yet and the Gyros are going to try and break their winning streak.

Sweet Sixteen and People's clash in the Ladies' League fixture.

Tonight's winners should be 65 Cabs over Gyros, People's over Sweet 16, Fashion Footwear over Merchants and Brownwoods over Co-op.
