REPORTORIAL EXPERIENCES?

(W. J. R.)

There used to be a time when the typewriter was not in general use in some newspaper offices and such omission was a short-sighed policy. From the standpoint of economy it was not justified. It bred loss of time, waste of effort, vexation of soul, all round perplexity and in short, plenty of grief.

A shining, spotless, glossy looking "mill" was hardly to be thought of for each member of the writing staff. Such contraptions cost real money. It might be all right for the New York Sale Nov. 25th. Times but not for the "Bing- | CCF Bazaar, Civic Centre Nov. ville Bugle." At least, not just 28th.

It would not have been quite so distressing had a measure no rutber.
