FAREWELLED BY CONGREGATION

Presentation Made by Presbyterians to Rev. and Mrs. A. F. MacSween

Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Mac-Sween and family left on last night's train for Melfort, Sask., where Mr. MacSween has accepted a call. A large number of the congregation and friends gathered at the train to wish them God-speed. Rev. MacSween preached his farewell sermon to his congregation Sunday evening and, after the service, there was a social hour in the Church Hall. Refreshments had been prepared by the Ladies Aid and J. A. Teng, on behalf of the congregation, presented Mr. and Mrs. MacSween with a picture of one of Prince Rupert's famous sunsets, expressing the regret of the congregation on their leaving. Mr. MacSween responded suitably, mentioning the pleasant times they had enjoyed

Rev. MacSween has occupied the pulpit of First Presbyterian Church for approximately six and one-half years. He was also active in the Junior Chamber WIDOW with daughter wants of Commerce as well as many
