Breakfast Club Hears Credit Talk

W. J. Bryant, manager of Wallace's Department Store Ltd., gave a comprehensive talk to Breakfast Clubbers this morning on "Credit Extension Efficiency versus Half-way Methods."

Mr. Bryant outlined the extension of credit from the time an application is taken right through to conclusion, whether the application is approved or not.

Birthday corsages were presented to Mrs. Ella Good, Paula Rickwood, Evelyn Smith and special corsages were given to new members Mrs. Mary Simpson of Rupert Motors Ltd., and Mrs. Betty Saville, of Sweet 16 Ltd.

Mrs. Catherine Laurie announced that club pins had been ordered and would be available to members within the next two weeks. She also spoke briefly on the recent election of Mrs. Rilla Anderson, of Helena, Montana, who is the new president of District No. 10. Full particulars of the Tacoma Convention will be in the next issue of the "Crier."

Breakfast Clubbers were told about the proposed visit to Prince Rupert this coming September by Professor L. M. Vukelich of the Department of Commerce, University of British Columbia, who will conduct a three evening course on salesmanship. It was announced that the number attending would be restricted to 75 and that over 50 had already registered for the course.

President Jocelyn Bolton advised members that a Rummage Sale would be held late in August, final arrangements being left in the hands of Mrs. Mary McLeod, chairman of the ways and means committee.

Last Rites For Secretary Of Deep Sea Fishermen

Funeral services were set for 2:30 this afternoon for George Anderson, well-known resident of this city since 1909 who died in hospital Tuesday night.

Born at Hattfjeldal, Norway, in 1886, Mr. Anderson moved to Canada in 1907, settling first in Rossland where he worked in the mines.

In 1909 he came to Prince Rupert and for the first five years was engaged in various trades, including clearing the right-of-way for the Grand Trunk Railway, now the C.N.R.

He worked from 1914 to 1927 on halibut boats out of Prince Rupert, then settled on shore, working for the city and various fish companies until his appointment as secretary-treasurer of the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union in 1932.

He was for many years a delegate to the Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council and for some time was on the executive board of that body.

He also was a member of the local advisory committee of the National Employment Service and throughout his life took an active interest in fishermen.

Mr. Anderson was married here in 1923 and besides his wife leaves two sons, Ralph of Burns Lake and George of Stewart, who arrived here Thursday, and a daughter Mrs. W. D. Mackay of Hope.

Rev. H. O. Olson of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will officiate at last rites from Grenville Court chapel.

Pallbearers, all members of the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union, are: Ole Klidal, Archie March, Gilbert Erwick, Alonzo Cook, Jack Molzar and Halfdan Vaken.
