The Ladies' Fastball League is providing a large crowd of spectators with first-class entertainment on Tuesday and Thursday of each week. The players are putting up an improving class of ball. Betty Hamilton and Beth Sedgwick are much better than average pitchers and the fielding of all three teams is show ing better class every game. The Gordon and Anderson nine are handicapped by lack of a regular nitcher but their hitting and fielding are good.

The present schedule ends on August 28 and then the play-offs will start. The lower two teams will play a series, with the winner meeting the league winners trophy. No game is creduled for Thursday August 21 as this is
