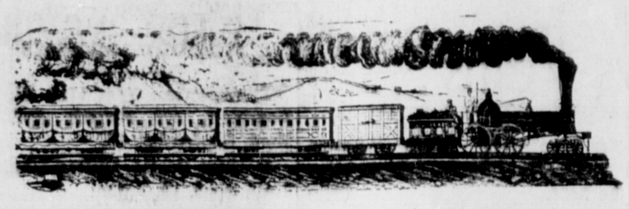
Dutch Family to Settle In Terrace

A new home at Terrace, where they will live on a fruit farm is ahead of Mr. and Mrs. William Brandis and their three children, Mary Ann, nine, Gerald, five and Joost, 10 months, who arrived here on the Prince Rupert today after leaving their native Holland.

The family arrived in Vancouver at the week-end on the Holland-America line motor ship Delftdyk to join a cousin, Peter van Stolk, who operates a fruit farm at Terrace.

The family left Holland because since the war it has become a country of "all work and no play" and they hope to find better conditions in Canada. Rationing and scarcity still play an important part in the lives of the average Hollander, according to Mr. Brandis.

Mr. Brandis was a prisoner of war of the Germans for three years. Mrs. Brandis and the children were in Arnheim, a Dutch city well known to Canadians.



MONTREAL'S FIRST TRAIN, operated by the Montreal and Lachine Rail Road in 1847, is pictured in this engraving by a contemporary artist. Special ceremonies at Montreal, and Lachine tomorrow will mark the 100th anniversary of the event. It is a far cry from the ornate little passenger carriages of a century ago to the smooth-riding air-conditioned cars of present-day railroading, from the primitive woodburners to the giant locomotives, from the eight-mile railroad to the 24,000 miles of the Canadian National system into which it grew.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

GRAPES AND PLUMS MAKE VARIETY IN DESSERTS AS FALL COMES IN

Varieties of grapes and plums run the color spectrum from soft rosy pinks through soft violet and amethyst to deep purple reds. Flavor is just as varied as color.

Grapes are usually eaten raw, making an easy and light dessert but they also are delicious cooked in puddings and gelatine moulds. One step in preparation must be considered when substituting grapes for other fruits. They are such seedy fruits that the pulp should be slipped from the skins, pressed through a sieve to remove the seeds, then skins and sieved pulp may be cooked, sweetened and used in any fruit dessert.

Plums require little preparation and should be used often while they are in season. Sweet varieties such as Shiro, Satsuma or Italian prunes are excellent for dessert served whole. Sour varieties are better cooked. Both types should be canned or frozen to preserve the delicious variety of flavour for winter use.

The home economists of the Dominion Department of Agriculture suggest several ways to cook grapes and plums.

Quick Plum Pie

4 cups pitted plums
¾ cup sugar
6 slices bread
3 tablespoons butter
¼ cup brown sugar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
1/8 teaspoon cloves

Place plums in a deep pie pan, add sugar. Cut bread in large triangles to simulate pieces of pie. Cream butter with brown sugar and spices, spread on both sides of bread. Place on top of plums. Bake in a hot oven 425oF., for 20 minutes or until bread is crisp and golden brown. Six servings.

Grape Sauce Pudding

Grape Mixture—
3 cups grapes (preferably blue)
⅓ cup sugar
1½ tablespoons cornstarch
Dash of salt

Wash grapes and separate skins from pulp. Heat pulp to boiling point and boil gently 5 minutes. Rub through a sieve to remove seeds. Combine pulp and skins and cook together for 5 minutes. Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt. Blend with a little grape mixture then add to remaining mixture and cook until thick, stirring frequently. Pour into greased, 1 quart baking dish, cool, then spread cake batter carefully over sauce. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375oF., for 30 minutes, then reduce heat to 350oF., and continue baking 15 minutes longer. Turn out on large deep plate. Serve hot. Six servings.

(When cool, the grape mixture is sufficiently stiff to revent cake batter sinking to the bottom of the dish).

Basic One-Egg Cake—
¼ cup fat
¼ cup sugar
1 egg
¼ teaspoon vanilla
1/8 teaspoon salt
¼ cup milk
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
OR 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons pastry flour
2 teaspoons baking powder

Cream fat. Gradually add sugar and cream thoroughly. Add beaten egg and vanilla and beat well. Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt and add alternately with milk to the first mixture. Finish as directed above.

LUTHERAN MARRIAGE

Miss Dagne Pedersen Becomes Bride of Karl Andren

Quiet but pretty and interesting was the marriage which took place Monday evening in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Rev. Earl Solland officiating, when Miss Dagne Margarete Pedersen, daughter of Ludvig Pedersen, 216 Fourth Avenue East, became the bride of Karl Axel Andren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Andren of Sault St. Marie, Ontario. It was a double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was becomingly attired in gray gabardine suit with gray accessories and corsage of pink roses and carnations.

The matron of honor, Mrs Norman Christensen, sister of the bride, wore a green suit with grey accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

Norman Christensen was the groomsman.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Commodore Cafe where twenty-five persons gathered to celebrate the occasion. The bride cut a handsome three-tier wedding cake and her toast was proposed by Bert Rowbottom.

Later in the evening the couple sailed on the Princess Adelaide for a two weeks' honeymoon trip to Vancouver after which they will return here to take up residence at 941 Third Avenue West

The groom is a draftsman for the Northwest Construction Co. The bride has been employed by Fraser & Payne.

Beauty at Home

Q. Is there a simple treatment for hard callouses on the feet?

A. Try applying some cuticle remover to the hard callouses, allowing this to remain on a few minutes, then rubbing gently with a pumice stone or a rough towel to remove the dead skin.
