Timely Topics from Terrace

Miss Annie Lips, principal of the Terrace Elementary School, and Mrs. Hamilton, also of the teaching staff, travelled by car to Prince Rupert on Friday, returning home on Saturday.

H. Noakes, school teacher here, visited Capt. J. A. Willson, the school teacher at Cedarvale, returning on Thursday's train.

Jack Barman travelled to Nash on Wednesday, returning later in the week.

Mr. Levirs, school inspector, arrived in Terrace on Thursday's train and returned to his home in Telkwa on Friday.

Mrs. Vic Giraud has returned from Smithers whence, with Mrs. Sherwood, she accompanied her father, Nigel Sherwood, for hospital treatment. She reports that her father is progressing favorably in hospital and will very shortly be back home in Terrace.

Mrs. A. B. Love returned to her home in Prince Rupert Thursday evening after a few days' visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Judd.

Mrs. Joe McConnell and family left on Thursday for Zeballos where they will make their future home.

A show for adults arranged by the National Film Board was held in the Terrace Theatre on Thursday evening. It was an excellent showing of interesting films which kept the attention of the audience all the way through. Special P.T.A. films were shown, "Citizens of Tomorrow" and "As the Twig is Bent" dealing with problem children and parents. There also were films on skiing, synthetic rubber, "What's on Your Mind?" (a psychiatric film) and a very interesting film on the reclamation of lands from the inroads of the tides of Nova Scotia. Ending the show was a "sing-song"- and a cartoon. These shows will be put on every month by the National Film Board.

Terrace Women's Institute Meet

Good Year Reported and Further Activity Planned

TERRACE—The home of Mrs. J. Maxted was filled on Thursday evening when the annual meeting of the Women's Institute was held there. Mrs. T. Olsen, as chairman, conducted the meeting which opened with the institute creed.

The treasurer's report showed a favorable bank balance. Two Christmas parcels have been sent to families in Holland and another parcel of toys and warm garments is ready to go.

It was decided to write to the University of British Columbia Extension Department for information on "Keeping Fit," also to write to Miss Travis, of the Extension Department, concerning various classes of home arts which, it is hoped, she will be able to conduct here next spring.

Mrs. Sikler volunteered to show and teach the art of leather glove making when a class can be arranged.

The offer of the Civic Centre's clubroom for a meeting place was accepted but it was decided that, for the winter months, the members would hold their meetings in one another's homes.

A vote of thanks was moved to the retiring executive and, after the meeting adjourned, refreshments were served.

The officers for the coming year are as follows:

President—Mrs. Olsen (re-elected).
Vice-President—Mrs. T. Brunton.
Secretary—Mrs. Stevenson.
Treasurer—Mrs. Maxted.
Director—Mrs. Peeke-Vout.

RADIO'S HOOPER RATING
