Schools...

Several lady teachers and an apartment for a married male teacher with a small child," Mrs. Roper said. "Also one or two light-housekeeping rooms for women teachers."

Based on the difficulty she has experienced in obtaining accommodation for the new teachers, Mrs. Roper shares the opinion that Prince Rupert's population is increasing.

Only administrative change in the school staff is the replacement of W. W. C. O'Neill, resigned, as principal of Booth Memorial High School by Alan M. Hurst.
