CHRISTIANITY WILL SURVIVE INDIA CRISIS

Belief that the Christian church in India will emerge "stronger and purer" because of the difficulties which current political turmoil places in its path was expressed Thursday afternoon by Commissioner Charles Baugh, Salvation Army territorial commander, in an address before the Prince Rupert Rotary Club.

"The Christian church, which is represented by 5,000,000 communicants, is too deeply imbedded in the country to be eradicated," he declared. "There will undoubtedly be increased opposition but that will not be bad. It will make the church stronger and purer."

A TALE OF TWO NATIONS

Royal Scot Reserve Highland Whisky is the product of the skills of two nations. Hiram Walker's distilleries in Scotland send over fine malt whisky. This is blended with malt whisky produced in Canada in Hiram Walker's imported pot stills. The result is Royal Scot — a truly fine Highland Whisky you will like, and serve with pride.
