ATTLEE'S RESIGNATION

LONDON-The Daily Mirror today asked for the resignation of Prime Minister Attlee as it was apparent he had failed to cope with Britain's economic problems. The need for a change was "obvious and urgent," the paper said.

THEY HAVE THINGS TO TALK ABOUT—U.S. soldiers Richard Fardy, right, and Lewis McKinney chat with a Russian army sergeant outside their quarters in the Russian zone at Weimar, Germany. The two G.I.'s are part of a group of five signal corps communications men who patrol communications set up between Berlin and Frankfurt. Each of them has been in the Soviet zone for about six months.
