Northwest Company To Build New Gym

Contract for the construction of the new gymnasium in connection with the Civic Centre has been let by the Civic Centre Association to Northwest Construction Co. for a figure just under $6,000 which does not include cost of materials. Material salvaged from the Roosevelt Park gymnasium will be used to construct the new building. W. H. Shortridge has been employed by the Civic Centre Association to act in an advisory capacity during construction.

BRITONS KIDNAPPED

JERUSALEM—Two British sergeants were kidnapped from Natanya early today by Jews believed to be extremist underground fighters and later a Jewish source said that Hagana, moderate Jewish underground army, was searching for the pair under threat of British martial law if they were not found. Officials said that Jews in a taxicab kidnapped the sergeants shortly after midnight from a sidewalk only 100 yards from the police station.

TRAINING FOR UNEMPLOYED

VANCOUVER—British Columbia unemployed received word today that possibly within a month vocational training facilities will be available. Veterans are still eligible under their own C. V. T. scheme.

Col. H. E. Goodman, regional supervisor of special placements National Employment Service, said that, during such courses, subsistence pay would be granted learners and 21 committees would be established throughout the province to review applicants. A candidate must be over sixteen.

Mrs. W. H. Fairbairn and Mrs. L. Joyce arrived in the city yesterday morning from Vancouver, and sailed last night on the Cassiar for Massett.

The holding of the negotiations here caused the postponement of a meeting of the executive of the Northern Interior Lumbermen's Association which was to have been held in Terrace tomorrow.

Mines Off Graham Is.

The Department of Marine has warned mariners that two mines are reported floating in a kelp bed between Rennel Sound and Kano Inlet on the west coast of Graham Island. The Department of National Defence, Naval Service, advises that two mines previously reported ashore on Bonilla Island and on the east coast of Graham Island, near Eagle Hill, respectively, have now been destroyed.

COD MARKET COLLAPSING

Demand For Cod So Slow In Nova Scotia Boats Are Remaining In Port

SYDNEY, N. S.—The market has dropped out of the cod-fish trade and vessels are tied up all along the Nova Scotia coast an official of one sea food firm said today.

The sales of frozen and fresh cod are "so low" that many schooners prefer to stand idle.

FEARS WILL PREVENT WAR

GLASGOW—Sir John Boyd, director-general of foods and agricultural organization, forecast here that the United Nations will prevent an outbreak of war "if for no other reason than fear of war prevents even the most powerful nation from leaving the assembly."

"We should not be disappointed because there is such obvious conflict of interest and so much disagreement in the United Nations assembly," Sir John said.

SOUTHEASTERN DOCKS HERE

With Phillip G. Briggs, the owner, aboard, the Briggs Steamship Co. vessel Southeastern docked here from Juneau and Ketchikan at 10 o'clock this morning. She carried one carload of tierces for rail shipment east and will load general cargo for the north and sail Sunday night or Monday morning. New skipper of the vessel is Capt. B. H. Moran. The fish packer Sydney, Capt. Osmund Hendrickson docked this morning from Ketchikan with three carloads of frozen fish for rail shipment east.

William Osborne sr., who has been employed in construction work at Ocean Falls for the past few months, returned to the city yesterday on the Camosun.

Bottle-Fed Fawn Is Barnyard Pet

LONDON, Ont.—Everybody at nearby Dochester—especially school children—is talking about "Susie," the baby deer. Tom O'Neil, found it near his farm. He almost ran over it with his tractor. Just a day old it weighed but six pounds and was a weak and frightened little fawn when carried back to the O'Neil barn. Susie now weighs 14 pounds. Mothered for a week by a young heifer and bottle-fed after that, she has grown strong and has lost her fear. Recently, Annette Sloss, teacher at Routledge School, S.S. No. 5, took her pupils down the road to see the "little deer." Susie made an instant hit. The sight of so many children and being handled so often didn't bother her a bit. Game warden Bert Smalley of Strathroy has issued a licence and a permit which gives Susie a permanent home with O'Neil.
