SERVICE CLUB OF CHRISTIANS
New Organization Being Formed in Prince Rupert

Dr. H. W. Riggs, a charter member of the Vancouver Kiwanis Club, was on his way to an international conference of the club when he and other members met a group of ministers going home from a Presbyterian convention in Winnipeg. The two groups discussed the principles of a service club in the light of Christian teaching with such interest that when Dr. Briggs returned home he had a vision of a service club within the church.

Now twenty five years later the A.O.T.S., meaning "as one who serves," has spread through southern British Columbia, into the north as far as Prince George, east across the prairies into Ontario and Quebec, and now these clubs are beginning to appear in Washington.

Dr. Douglas H. Telfer, president of the British Columbia conference of the United Church, presented this outline of the growth of the A.O.T.S. in a talk before a group of interested men who gathered last night in the United Church hall.

"The A.O.T.S., which is a non-denominational organization, is not controlled by the church in which it may have its beginning and is intended to offer a means whereby men who believe deeply in the Christian principles may express their faith through service to others," declared Dr. Telfer.

Following Dr. Telfer's address a number of those present expressed the desire to see A.O.T.S. club formed in Prince Rupert and a committee consisting of Crawford Moore, Martin Stuart, Dr. D. Galbraith, George McWhinney and Harry Seaman was appointed and asked to compile a report on the possibilities of such an organization. The refreshments, arranged by Harry Sheardown, were served "Dagwood" style, each man

Moose Whist Party And Dance Enjoyed

Another highly enjoyable whist party and dance was held by the Moose lodge in the temple Saturday night. Prize-winners at whist were Mrs. L. Bolam, Mrs. S. Corliss, C. G. Brechin and George McWhinney. Dancing, with music by Stevens' orchestra and Carl Brechin as master of ceremonies, was enjoyed from 10:30 p.m. During an intermission refreshments were served and whist prizes were distributed.

FORMER LOCAL GIRL MARRIES

Miss Jean Murvold and Raymond Furness United in New Westminster

Prince Rupert-born Jean Murvold, fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Murvold, formerly of this city and for the past five years residing in New Westminster, became the bride of Raymond Neil Furness, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Furness, also of New Westminster, at a recent quiet ceremony at the home of the bride's parents in the Royal City. Rev. F. W. Elde officiated and the attendants were Miss Beverly Furness, sister of the groom, and Miss Nora Soros as bridesmaids, and Ted Moulton as groomsman. Prior to the wedding, a number of showers were held in honor of the bride.

LOCAL COUPLE WED, TO LIVE AT CALGARY

A rite joining members of two local families was solemnized by Rev. J. Carroll, O.M.I., in the chapel of Annunciation Church at 7 o'clock Monday evening when Norah Cecelia, youngest daughter of Mrs. Ellen McCaffery and the late M. P. McCaffery, became the bride of William E. Bond, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bond, of this city.

The bride's graceful gown was of off-white brocaded satin with an inset-yoke net. A small cap of matching material held the floor-length veil. Her bouquet was of deep red roses. She was given in marriage by her cousin, R. E. Moore.

Bridesmaid was Miss Charlotte Balagno, who looked lovely in silver blue taffeta with pink accessories.

Groomsman was William Long. A reception, attended by about 60 guests, was held at the home of the bride's mother, 445 Fourth Avenue West.

Mrs. McCaffery and Mrs. Bond welcomed the guests, the former wearing a floor-length gown of royal blue with black accessories and the latter gowned in violet with black accessories.

Toast to the bride was proposed by Father Carroll, with response by the groom. Toast to the bridesmaid was proposed by Judge W. O. Fulton to which the groomsman responded.

Those pouring during the evening were Mrs. C. P. Balagno and Mrs. Francis Miller, of Vancouver. Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. R. E. Moore, Miss Mary Armstrong, Mrs. Don Fitch, Mrs. P. Bond, Miss Mary McCaffery, Mrs. Clarence Thomson and Miss Frances Moore.

The groom's gift to the bride was a lovely string of pearls.

The newly married couple left last night on the Princess Adelaide for Vancouver. They will spend a honeymoon in the south, after which they will go to Calgary where they will make their home.

The bride and groom have spent the greater part of their lives in Prince Rupert. The bride was recently employed by Canadian Pacific Air Lines. The groom is a graduate of the University of British Columbia. He is employed by an oil company at Calgary.
