New Ship Launching Pledge of C.N.R. Policy

Railway Expenditures Important Part of National Economy, Declares Vaughan

VICTORIA—Mayor Percy E. George and the city council of Victoria entertained at a civic luncheon here today Hon. Lionel Chevrier, K.C., minister of transport; R. C. Vaughan, chairman and president, Canadian National Railways and Steamships; N. B. Walton, executive vice-president, and other officers of railway.

Mr. Vaughan said that the new Canadian National steamship the "Prince George," to be launched at Yarrows Limited, Esquimalt, following the luncheon, is to be "bigger, faster and more modern" than any passenger-carrying vessel sailing today in the northern coastal service of British Columbia.

"But it is not on this account alone that we are proud of this new steamship," said the railway executive. "Our greatest pride, one in which I am sure every Canadian shares, stems from the fact that she is Canadian-designed and Canadian-built."

"We could have placed the order for this vessel elsewhere than in Canada. We had that choice. But the record of Canadian shipyards in the late war convinced us that just as good ships can be built in Canada as anywhere in the world. This new steamship is proof of our conviction. It is an attestation of our faith in the quality of Canadian materials and in the skill of Canadian dockyard workers. It is evidence of our unalterable principle to spend with Canadian industry and with Canadian labor as much as we can of the money we earn so largely from Canadian industry and from the fruits of Canadian labor."

"The contract price for this vessel was $3,088,000. Even in these days, that is a substantial sum and it will pay for many man hours of work. All of British Columbia will profit from it."

RAILWAY PURCHASES ARE VERY IMPORTANT
"Purchases by the Canadian National Railways form an important part of our country's economy," continued Mr. Vaughan. "They are so large, so widespread and so diverse that it is safe to say all Canadians and all parts of Canada benefit from them. In Canada alone this year we shall spend close to $100,000,000 for materials and supplies and all of this money will be shared by firms and individuals distinct from, and in no way part of, our company.

"This huge sum would be even larger if materials and labor were available. For example, we have already placed orders in Canada this year for rolling stock—that is, locomotives, freight and passenger car equipment—amounting to $40,000,000. But this is not sufficient for our requirements and we have been trying for many months to increase our orders for passenger-carrying cars. The material and labor shortage have been such that car equipment firms have been unable even to quote on our requirements.

"In the face of these difficulties we have been endeavoring to improve the situation with an extensive program of rehabilitation and remodeling of locomotives and car equipment in our own shops across Canada. On this program we shall spend an estimated $24,000,000 this year. When you add this sum to what we are spending for equipment built outside of our own shops, you reach the large total of $64,000,000 for rolling stock alone. As I have said, we would do more if we could but we must grapple with the same problems with which all other industrialists in Canada must struggle."

"Let us always remember that it was upon the bed-rock of the railway industry that the progress of Canada was laid, progress in which the components making up the Canadian National system played a vital part. It is upon the bed-rock of the railway industry that the future of Canada must be laid. In that future the Canadian National Railways will have an important role to play. As to how they will pay it, the launching of this fine, modern steamship here today is an omen and a pledge."

New International Body Is Sponsored By Russia

MOSCOW (CP)—A new Communist international organization was announced Sunday to fight the Marshall Plan and United States "imperialism." Communist leaders of nine countries form the organization. It is the first such grouping to which the Russians have lent support since they declared the Comintern dead in 1943. It is aimed at uniting the chief Communist strength in Europe.

Pravda, official Communist newspaper here, said the Communist leaders from the nine countries met "somewhere in Poland" last month and appraised the world as split into Russian and American orbits. They ordered an "information bureau" set up to co-ordinate activities. Coming from behind after Starter Frank Shea had been shelled from the hill, the Yanks knocked out Hal Gregg and continued to attack his successors to nail down the American League's twenty-seventh Series victory.

A game-ending double play precipitated a wild scene near the Yankee mound as New York players swarmed around Fireman Joe Page who had pitched near perfect ball after swinging into action at the start of the fifth. He allowed only one hit, a single by Eddie Miksis in the ninth, as he returned the first thirteen men he faced.

With about $70,000, the difference between the money going to the winning and losing sides, hanging in every pitch, the left-handed Page, who received credit for the victory over Hal Gregg, was magnificent.

The Dodgers swarmed over Shea in the second inning as the young right-handed rookie, coming back with only the day's rest, faltered under pressure.
