SATURDAY SERMON

THE BLESSINGS OF HUMILITY

(By REV. EARL SOILAND, St. Paul's Lutheran Church)

> "For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted." —Luke 14:11.

There are some basic principles that form the foundation for the moral life of man. These principles were referred to and very often developed by Jesus Christ for His disciples. They are the highest form of ethics for any human being. Wisdom demands that we recognize and use them if we desire to make our lives as truly successful as we would like.

Among the principles that Jesus makes us acquainted with is the reward for conduct which we meet in life. Underlying the whole of the human life is the law of retribution, or the fact that we always are repaid in kind for what we do. This divine law always works, so that a person who is kind will be repaid with kindness. One who cheats will himself be deceived. A person who speaks evil of his neighbor will learn that others talk about him. It is not possible for anyone to do either good or evil without receiving his reward in return. This does not mean that the reward is received from the person with whom you deal directly. Often it is found that the person whom you help returns evil as his payment. Others will ignore or at least think that you owe it to them, but that does not mean his law does not work. Somewhere, and at the proper time someone will repay in kind.

Closely akin to this matter of reward is our attitude. Most of us are mighty proud. Our hearts will not let us admit that anyone is better or more important than we. We simply refuse to admit that we need any kind of help. For the most part, it is our experience that we can fight our own battle of life fairly successfully. Only when we were chidren did we admit that anyone could help us. This attitude extends both to our physical and also to our spiritual lives.

It is part of our natural pride that we refuse to admit that we are not able to live lives that are holy, perfect and pure. Of course we do admit that we maybe could be different at times than we are, but we immediately remind ourselves that we have tried to do our best. When we insist on maintaining our foolish pride in spite of the fact that we know that we are not able to meet God's requirements, we face that condition where God resists us because of the pride in our hearts. As long as that pride remains, we cannot please God.

Children admit that they need help. Christ says that unless you become as little children, you cannot enter the kingdom of God. An important decision faces us. Shall we maintain our pride at the cost of Eternal Life? Or, knowing the price, do we have the moral courage to yield that pride and admit that we need the help of God? God gives grace to the humble. We cannot be holy or righteous by our own efforts but we can become holy if we permit God to give us His grace. The humility we need is the same as that of a child. When did you ever see a child who was too proud to accept help of his parents? If we are to have God as our father, we must be as children. There must be a recognition of need and a willingness to receive help. God can and will supply that need and give the needed help. True humility brings with it a great blessing.

It is possible for a humble person to enter heaven. For such a one the holiness of Jesus Christ awaits as a gift. God is more eager to give to us this gift than we are to receive it. The condition is such that without humility we cannot receive this gift. Without it we cannot enter heaven. When we are humble as little children and are willing to receive this gift, then we can look forward to the joy of having fellowship with God now and in heaven forever.

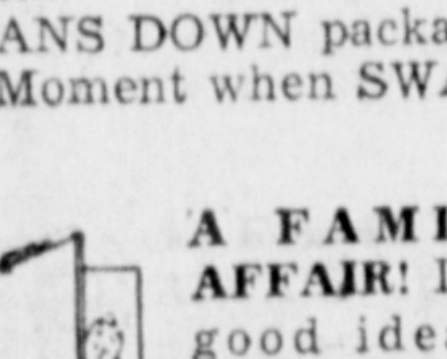
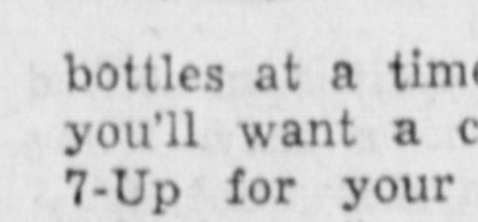
WALLACEBURG, Sept. 25th—At last! A miracle of modern inventiveness takes the time and trouble from cooking...makes it a happy experience! It's the PRESTO COOKER, of course ...the most remarkable cooking utensil yet invented! Most foods are pressure-cooked—the PRESTO way—in a quarter of the usual time—fuel is saved—the food goes further, retains its good colour and flavour—its vitamins and minerals! PRESTO is truly the kitchen miracle—get yours tomorrow...any Housewares dealer... to me, Barbara Brent, Dept. 102, 1411 Crescent St., Mont- P.Q., for brand new, grand new PRESTO recipes!



A TIP FROM THE TEENAGERS well porting...from a friend's youngster who raved about the yummy cake served at party. My friend inquired and found Gold Cake—made with SWANS DOWN FLOUR. Now young Anne has her dream- home...light and fluffy—made, the DOWN way, to melt in your mouth. a grand Gold Cake recipe on the SWANS DOWN package). planning a party...with the Big Moment when SWANS cake is served!

So why not open your Account now at the OF MONTREAL...a Sav- count to take care of all Season's expenditures? mber of the B of M's ll be glad to assist you in a Savings Account with ount from a dollar up. of how pleasant it be unworried by those istmas bills! The sleigh- be merrier—your giv- be gayer...you'll have Merry Christmas!



A FAMILY AFFAIR! It's a good idea to check your family - supply of 7-Up every day or so... buy several bottles at a time! Every day... you'll want a chilled bottle of 7-Up for your mid-morning "fresh up"...and mixed with Junior's milk it makes a delicious drink! It's Sue's favourite after-school treat...and your husband likes a glass of 7-Up after dinner with his evening paper! 7-Up is more than a family affair around your house...it's really a family "must"! Keeps everyone smiling and happy as larks! So check your supply now—and if it's low—phone your favourite 7-Up dealer—the man with the cheery 7-Up signs on display!

TIME NOW TO SHAKE THE SUMMER'S SAND from your shoes—to sweep it from your home... time for Fall Housecleaning—everything spic and span for Winter! And when there's cleaning to be done, LINIT is always a "must"! It's a fine, thin-boiling starch that keeps freshly-done laundry fresher longer! Magic, that's what!...and a boon to the busy housewife, I can assure you! So why not write to me for your free copy of "The Linit Book"—chuck full of helpful housecleaning hints! Send your request to—Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q.
