Married Quietly At United Church

Miss Iris Ann Burke of Winnipeg, became the bride of Anel Krogh Nelson, of Prince Rupert, at a quiet wedding ceremony conducted by Rev. R. A. Wilson, in the manse of the First United Church, Saturday evening. Matron of honor was Mrs. T. C. Gowan, with T. J. Gowan acting as best man. The young couple will reside in Prince Rupert.

WED QUIETLY AT CATHEDRAL

Miss Doreen Croxford Becomes Bride of Jack Birch

A popular couple were united in marriage by Rev. Basil S. Prockter at a quiet ceremony at St. Andrew's Cathedral Monday evening when Doreen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Croxford, became the bride of Jack Layley Birch, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Birch, in the presence of a few friends.

The bride wore a gray tailored suit with gray accessories with corsage of fuschia roses, with gloves matching the corsage. Her attendant was Miss Ellen Perry who wore a brown dress-maker suit with green accessories and corsage of white carnations.

Groomsman was Leonard Birch, brother of the bride-groom.

About 100 friends of the bride and groom gathered at Valhalla Hall following the ceremony, where they were received by Mrs. A. B. Love, wearing a black dress with matching accessories and corsage of pink carnations, and Mrs. Leonard Birch, dressed in a two-piece suit of gray gabardine with black accessories and corsage of dark rose carnations.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Ken Yelland, with response by the groom. During the evening, the bride cut a three-tier wedding cake that centred her table. A buffet luncheon was served during the evening. Dancing was enjoyed with music by Andy McNaughton at the piano.

The newly married couple have taken up residence at 905 Tenth Avenue East. Mr. Birch is a member of the staff of Van's Bakery. The bride is a member of the city telephone staff.

Saturday Evening Whist and Dancing

Another evening of whist and dancing proved enjoyable Saturday night for a gathering of Moose members and friends. Winners at cards were Mrs. W. Sheppard, Mrs. L. Killen, Ted Rovvik and D. Giske. After cards there was dancing to the music of Stephens' Orchestra. During the intermission prizes were distributed and refreshments enjoyed.

PRINCE RUPERT YEARS AGO

October 21, 1912

William Manson, M.P., and Alderman G. W. Kerr, J. C. Halsey and J. E. Merryfield went south to attend a Conservative convention at Revelstoke. The party travelled on the Princess Sophia expecting to return in about 10 days.

Fred R. Chute, for 14 years in the Yukon, and one of the first men to take up quartz mining in the territory, passed through the city on the Princess Sophia on his way to England. Mr. Chute expected to return to the north in the spring.

Mrs. John Black, wife of a well known Klondyke old timer, and clerk of the Yukon Territorial Court, was a south-bound passenger on the Princess Sophia. Her uncle was George Black, Governor of the Yukon Territory.

J. F. Duthie, Seattle ship-builder and owner of the Mamie and other mining claims at Hudson Bay Mountain, Smithers, told the Prince Rupert Rotary Club that five tons of ore taken out assayed $1,800 to the ton and that another 100 tons assayed $200 to the ton. Only question to be solved was that of the depth of the veins, which would be diamond drilled in the near future.

Fred Stork, M.P., who returned from a visit to the Queen Charlotte Islands, looked for big results from the logging operations that were under way around Massett, Port Clements and Buckley Bay. The logging and other industries would bring the islands into industrial prominence, he forecast.

In Assize Court before Mr Justice Murphy, a member of the crew of the whaler White, named McEachern, was appearing for trial on a charge of shooting J. R. Matthews, mate of the vessel. The charge arose following a dispute over wages in which Matthews was wounded in the head by a rifle bullet. Jurors hearing the case were T. A. Roy, W. J. Scherk, Alex Strachan, N. G. Robinson, W. E. Willisroft, Howard Steen, S. A. Bird, W. G. Oakley, R. A. Sims and J. A. Edwards.

The newly organized Prince Rupert Labor Committee decided to divide the city into zones which would be canvassed to
