SHORT SPORT

It is good to know that Wally Landon has recovered from the heavy cold that kept him confined to his home for a few days recently. As umpire-in-chief he is a popular arbiter—that is as popular as any umpire can be, especially with the losing team and his knowledge of the game, coupled with his experience, makes him a good man to have behind the plate.

At the same time the Fastball Commission is very pleased that Alex Bill has consented to umpire. Alex is a keen student of the theory of any game he takes up. As he has also played the games, he knows them from a player's point of view. His quick authoritative decisions leave both players and spectators in no doubt as to his decisions and he is a valuable asset to the umpiring staff. Of course there are dozens, even hundreds of umpires . . . in the bleachers! but to have them behind the plate is where they are needed.

REWARD

"Wherever the body is, there will the eagles be gathered together." Boatmen and Fishermen plying the waters of Pillsbury Cove and adjacent Venr.
Passage are specially requested to be on the lookout for eagles on the beach. If noticed, please investigate. There is a reward of $75 for the recovery of the body of Vincent Leighton, who was accidentally drowned at Pillsbury Cove on July 5th, 1947.

PERPETUATION

A MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA . . .

Because nearly one-third of the land surface of our Province is suitable only for the growing of tree-crops, it is essential that we manage and cut our forests so that they will provide an annual harvest for all time.
Over forty thousand workers in this Province, and their families, are directly dependent on the forest industries for employment and many additional thousands are indirectly affected. No other industry in British Columbia could absorb this body of workers, should the forest industries cease to exist. They and their families would perforce have to migrate elsewhere. The B.C. Forest Service is working to ensure continuous production of forest crops for all time, for the benefit of the people of British Columbia. You can also help by being careful with fire when in the forests.

PREVENT FOREST FIRES!

E. T. KENNEY,
Minister of Lands and Forests.

You can Depend on...

That's what we always want this place to be.
We will not knowingly sell you an unsatisfactory article and will do our best to make right any defect which may turn up in anything bought here.
Through long experience we have found the factories which make the best qualities.
We try to keep our prices on a par with those of larger cities.
We are always here to make any adjustments.
