SALVATION ARMY HOLDS CONCERT

Program of Christmas Plays And Music
A program of Christmas plays and music which featured the annual Salvation Army Sunday School Christmas tree was climaxed with the appearance of Santa Claus who distributed gifts to the children in a packed audience at the Citadel Wednesday evening.
The program was opened with remarks by Brigadier T. Gillingham, after which Capt. E. Jarrett led in prayer and Ms. Gillingham gave a scripture reading. At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Jarrett thanked those who had worked to make the concert a success. The gathering sang "O Come, All Ye Faithful," following which Brigadier Gillingham delivered the benediction.
The program consisted of the following items:
"Hark, the Herald Angels Sing" by the congregation.
"Ring the Merry Bells" by the Sunday School children.
Recitation, "Welcome," by C. Oliver.
Dialogue, "The Star's Light," members of the Senior School.
Item, "Welcome," members of Mrs. Erickson's class.
Piano and accordion duet, Margaret Strachan and Olive Strand.
Primary item, "Mother Goose's Christmas."
Recitation, "The Spirit of Christmas."
Drill, presented by the Senior girls under the direction of Mrs. Chambers.
Item, "Jonah and the Whale," presented by the Band of Love members.
Dialogue, "Christmas Fare," presented by the Corps Cadets.
Recitation, "Don't Forget the Saviour," Rev. Gillespie.
Song, "Christmas Night," Senior girls.
Item, "Candles of the Lord," Mrs. Erickson's class.
Item, "The Gospel Ship," Amos Ewald's class.
Piano and accordion duet, Margaret Strachan and Olive Strand.
The closing item of the program was a pageant entitled "The Way of the Radiant Star" which was presented by the members of the Home League and Senior Sunday School members.

FRIEND IN NEED GETS BIG REWARD

WANGANUI, N.Z. (CP)—Twenty-three years ago Mrs. M. G. Taylor, of Wanganui, was reading in the public library when she was approached by a shy couple with a problem. They wanted to get married in the registry office, but had no witnesses and no friends. They asked if Mrs. Taylor would be witness for them and she agreed. After the register had been signed the bride said to Mrs. Taylor, "You'll benefit from this," but she never saw either of them again. Now, however, she has heard from the public Trustee, that she is a substantial beneficiary under their estate.

BASKETBALL CHATTER

(By BILL LONG)
The fate of Bo-Me-Hi basketball team—whether it shall be intermediate or senior—is subject of a good deal of interest on the part of hoop fans and will provide food for conversation and argument during the Christmas intermission when the merits of all teams will be given a half-time examination.
Bo-Me-Hi's plight is this—they have been requested by the Association executive to move up into the Senior League and, while they undoubtedly have a couple of players of senior calibre, Lavigne and Forman—nobody seems to be certain how well the whole team would stack up in the top circle.
The students are plainly the cream of the Intermediate League, so much so that their constant triumphs have about eliminated competition, thus reducing fan interest. The argument, seemingly, will centre on whether or not a move to the senior section would benefit the team, the league and, therefore, local basketball.
If the students do move into the senior category, their place in the intermediate league will be eagerly filled by the Port Edward team which sought admission earlier this week.
High School coach Alex Bill wisely declined to make a decision on behalf of his team as did Booth High School principal A. M. Hurst. Both left it up to the players. So far, no word of their decision had penetrated this far. To coach Bill the thing must be a bit of a tiresome routine. Last year when he had his team clicking at top efficiency in the Intermediate League he was requested to climb into the senior group. His team did so with glorious results. This year, with the schedule half over, he gets the same request. If the team does go Senior it undoubtedly will be with the same determination that inspired last year's successful aggregation.

Incidentally, it seems too bad that some of the other coaches could not do as well, especially the Fashion Footwear mentor. The shoemen can boast of but one win this season, yet their entire roster reads of names that have graced the Intermediate League for two or three seasons. Let's hope that they do better in the New Year.

Cloth Is Lighter But Just As Warm

LONDON (C)—All over the world there is a noticeable tendency to make materials for women's dresses and coats lighter, without reducing their ability to keep the wearers warm. Experts in Britain's textile industries' research laboratories are concentrating on the solution of this problem by new methods of treating the yarn and new methods of weaving. They have succeeded already in reducing the weight of new materials to two-thirds the weight of customary cloth and the materials have become popular rapidly.

INDIAN DERIVATION
The slang word "thug" comes from a confederacy of professional assassins who travelled in gangs through India in the early 19th century.
