Immediate attention has been given to enlarging the scope and capacity of Pacific Mills' own logging operations at two permanent "family home" logging communities-Sandspit in the Queen Charlotte Islands and Beaver Cove, near the northeast tip of Vancouver Island. Negotiations were also begun for the acquisition of additional large timber tracts in the Islands and on the British Columbia main-

OTTAWA, (CP)-The Canadian Congress of Labor appears to be moving for a showdown with Communists in its ranks. Suggesting that the Reds within the Union are playing ball with allegedly Communist-dominated United Textile Workers of America (AFL), the Congress declared it was demanding an immediate stop to this disloyalty.

The disclosure came about three months after J. A. (Pat) Sullivan secretary-treasurer of the Trades & Labor Congress, resigned that job and the presidency of the Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) on grounds that the C.S.U. was dominated by the Reds.

Almost simultaneously with the Ottawa announcement, Sullivan, in Montreal, was allegedly assaulted twice on the waterfront whie trying to organize his new Canadian-Great Lakes Sailors' Union. The police have three men in custody. The police said Sullivan and John Chapman, another officer of his union were beaten up inside a cafe by a group of angry Canadian seamen union men.

At Montreal, Judge Gerard Almond yesterday signed a warrant for the arrest of Sullivan, president of the Canadian Lake Seamen's nion, on a charge of intent to maim Joseph Davis, one of three men arrested for attacking Sullivan and John Chapman.

JIMMY, THE BEAR,

Pulls Unusual Antics At Jasper Park Lodge

JASPER, Alta.-Jimmy, the black bear that has been entertaining guests at Jasper Park Lodge on various occasions this season with his playful antics, pulled a new trick on Monday at the dinner hour. He climbed on one of the big firs, whose boughs overhang the main lodge building and, attracted by the tempting ocors of high-class cooking, he jumped onto the roof on the large structure immediotely over the dining room.

At the time the big dining room was filled with 300 guests and soon, hearing noises overhead, many of them left to join the gallery of 200 already watching the show from a vantage point nearby.

The scene consisted of hali a dozen lodge employees trying to entice the 400-pound bruin off the roof.

By coincidence, Harry Rowed, of Jasper, well known Canadian photographer, happened to be on the roof at the same time, preparing to shoot a scene of Mount Edith Cavell across Lac Beauvert, immediately in front of the Lodge.
