> > Rain falling during the night on Monday after a spell of hot, dry weather at the week-end, proved disappointing for the farmers who have not yet got in their hay. Cherries are ripening quickly and strawberries are practically over. Garden peas are being picked and are of good quality, and raspberries are in full ripeness with a good crop assured. In this connection, there is a very good crop of the wild fruit such as rasps, blueberries and saskatoons, better than for several years past.
