"LUMINOUS PANCAKES" TARGET OF NEW TELESCOPE AT MOUNT PALOMAR

NEW YORK, (AP) — A 200-inch telescope nearing completion on Mount Palomar in southern California will look at a sky full of luminous pancakes.

Up, down, north, south, east and west in the heavens except for stars in the Milky Way or close to it, the great eye is expected to see nothing but these flowing celestial hotcakes.

Each pancake is an island universe of stars, each like the Milky Way where our sun is one of 100,000,000 or more stars. Our Milky Way is also a flapjack, turning like a pinwheel, at about 600,000 miles an hour, and so vast that light takes about 100 years to cross from one rim to the other.

The entire known universe is filled with similar pancakes, each made of hot stars, gases and dust clouds. The number of pancakes is estimated as between 100,000,000 and 100,000,000,000,000.

The first dazzling question for the new eye is whether the pancakes continue on outward. If they end, will the great telescope see the edge of creation?

Present telescopes see the distance that light moving at 186,000 miles a second will travel in 500,000 years. The Mount Palomar telescope will see 1,000,000,000 years and probably farther

PRAIRIE COUPLE WED AT TERRACE

TERRACE— A quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Church manse on Saturday evening when, Margo Classen, of Gretna, Manitoba, exchanged nuptial vows with James Penner of Altoona, Man. The Rev. J. McAllister officiated.

The bride was attired in a turquoise blue dress with hat to match and black accessories, and was attended by Miss Flora Melvin, of Terrace, dressed in misty plum wool suit with gold accessessories.

Groomsman was Joe Kendall of Terrace.

Later a reception was held at the home of Mrs. T. Olson, when 40 guests gathered to congratulate the happy couple who stood under a big white bell with pink streamers.

The house was charmingly decorated with lovely fall flowers and Mrs. T. Olson received the guests. A fine display of lovely and useful gifts was in evidence. Later the newlyweds returned to their temporary home in Kwinitsa, where the groom is an employee of the Public Works Department.

Terrace men joined in a "work bee" Sunday at the Civic Centre, where they lined the bowling alleys with wall board. Decision to hold the "bee' was made at a meeting of the Civic Centre directors Friday night.

The Women's Institute held its first meeting of the season in the Orange Hall Friday evening. Mrs. Tom Olsen, president, was in the chair. There was a large attendance ,and several new members were enrolled. Plans were laid for the year's courses in the regular handicrafts. At the close of the meeting, light refreshments were served.

Canadian Legion Public Relations officer Robert Macnicol and Mrs. Macnicol left Terrace Saturday for Smithers after a two day visit during which Mr. Macnicol addressed a meeting of Legion and Women's Auxiliary. Mr. Macnicol was introduced by Lloyd Johnstone, president of the Terrace branch. In his speech he stressed what he termed "poor treatment" of the "burned-out" veterans and told of the campaign to have conditions improved.

Students leaving Terrace at the week-end to attend University of British Columbia were William Cooper accompanied by Mrs. Cooper Maurice Cole and Jack Kirkaldy.

Better English
By D. C. WILLIAMS

1. What is wrong with this sentence? "The men divided the money between themselves."
2. What is the correct pronunciation of "dirigible?"
3. Which one of these words is misspelled? Haze, blaze, amaze, phaze.
4. What does the word "cynosure" mean?
5. What word beginning with am means "to consolidate?"

Answers

1. Say, "among" when referring to more than two. 2. Pronounce dir-i-ji-bl, all i's as in "it" and accent first syllable, not dir-ig-i-bl with accent on second syllable. 3. Phase. 4. A centre of attraction or attention. "He was the cynosure of all eyes." 5. Amalgamation.

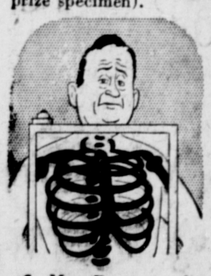
ROEG'S GALLERY

1. Mr. Roeg—as he looks to the waitress at "The Coffee Pot". (At first glance you wouldn't say that Mr. Roeg is a particularly prize specimen).

2. Mr. Roeg, as he looks to the office force. ("What's biting old Simon Legree," they want to know. "Jumpy as a trout!")

3. Mr. Roeg, as he thinks he looks. ("Gotta slow down," he mutters, "guess I've been hustling too much. Better drop in and see the Doc.")



4. Mr. Roeg as he looks to the doctor. ("While plenty of folks can drink tea and coffee with no ill effects," the doctor says, "you're not one of them. Switch to Postum! It contains no caffein or stimulants of any kind.")

5. Mr. Roeg as he looks to his wife that night. ("Darling, you've lost your job," she exclaims. "Worse", he replies. "Doc says I gotta cut out tea and coffee.")

6. Mr. Roeg as he looks after his first good swallow of Postum. ("Well, well!" he says to his wife. "I'm glad that Doc put me on Postum. It's a grand-tasting, he-man's drink, with a fine flavor all its own.")
