ANNIVERSARY OF FATHER DUNCAN

Canadian Goodwill Party Visits New Metlakatla, Alaska

A Canadian "goodwill" party was present this week at New Metlakatla, Alaska, during the celebration o fthe ninetieth anniversary of the arrival among the Tsimpsean Indians of Father William Duncan, whose missionary work at Port Simpson and old Metlakatla resulted in the founding of the prosperous Annette Island village.

Rev. Peter Kelly, whose missionary pastorate is served by the boat Thomas Crosby, and Rev. W. P. Bunt, secretary of home missions for the United Church of Canada, accompanied by Mrs. Kelly and their son Horace, visited the Alaskan community on Sunday for observance of the anniversary.

Both Mr. Kelly and Mr. Bunt expressed their good wishes on behalf of the United Church for the descendants of those who followed Father Duncan from old Metlakatla to New Metlakatla in 1887.

Father Duncan came to Canada in 1857 from England, starting his missionary work at Port Simpson, later establishing the Christian village of Metlakatla, near Prince Rupert. Church differences led him to take a band of followers and establish New Metlakatla on Annette Island in 1887.

Rev. Mr. Kelly and Mr. Bunt addressed the evening service in the Duncan Memorial Church, and members of the party were later guests of honor at a social gathering.

"The trip seems to have aroused a fine enthusiasm and a close spirit of understanding," said Mr. Kelly, who was in the city Wednesday.

The Duncan Memorial Church is affiliated with the Methodist Church of the United States.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

Launching of the new ss. Prince George at the Yarrow Shipbuilding yard, Esquimalt, is to take place next Monday afternoon, October 6. This will be the largest vessel for passenger service ever built on the coast and will serve on the B.C.-Alaska run commencing next summer. The ship will be formally named by Mrs. Chevrier of Ottawa, who is now in Victoria.

Highway Troubles Because of Rain

A large fill has been made to eliminate a hole in the Skeena Highway in the neighborhood of Woodcock and a ditch has been dug to carry off water. This point has been giving some trouble and it is the intention to find out just where the difficulty is and bring about permanent repair there, as well as anywhere else needing the attention of enginers. Troubles have been caused recently by unusually heavy rains and stress of weather now that fall is coming on.

Albert Davidson Passes In South

Old friends in the city will learn with regret of the death which took place in Vancouver on Tuesday of this week of Albert Davidson, who twenty-five years or so ago was district freight agent for the Canadian National Railways here, later transferred to Vancouver where he had lived since. Some years ago he left the railway company and went into the shipping business. Mr. Davidson had been ill for some time before his death.
