Rescue Ship Takes Gifts To Alaska

The American vessel Denali, which figured in the attempt to give aid to the foundering Clarksdale Victory at Hippa Island, played a right-about-face role as Christmas week approached.

She was converted into a Santa Claus craft and did not fail the hundreds of waiting children at Yakutat and many others of the smaller ports in Alaska. Off the westward sailed the Denali, with the mails, gifts galore, Santa Claus himself.

SHORT SPORT

When he was a boy, Charles (Horse) Ayers of Toronto, concentrated too hard on watching a horse-shoe pitching contest and a stray toss left a scar on his head.

More than 60 sets of horse-shoes are included in his collection, one of the most recent and most prized being the hind shoes worn by Stymie when he won the $100,000 Gold Cup at Belmont last summer.

Charlie's interest in horses revived when he worked as an extra at Toronto's old Grand Opera House in a racing play called "Checkers" and rooted for a horse named Remorse to win a big race.

The shoe collection started in 1928, when a track blacksmith handed Charlie the shoes Young Kitty wore when she won the King's Plate in 1928.
