POPPIES BLOOM ON CITY STREETS

Poppies, bright red symbols of remembrance, bloomed on hundreds of coat lapels and hatbands in Prince Rupert Saturday as more than three score children and Canadian Legion ladies sold them on downtown streets in the Legion's annual poppy tag day to aid disabled veterans.

The poppies will be worn again on Remembrance Day, tomorrow, when citizens turn out to attend the ceremonies at the Cenotaph honoring the dead of the first and second World Wars.

Proceeds from the tag day totalled $487, it was announced this morning.

Winners of the five $1 prizes for highest sales were Mary Doane, who turned in $20.50; Bobby Watts, $19.98; Dorothy Hibbard, $10.69; Phillip Lyons, $19.66 and Connie Rothwell, $15.76.

Extra theatre tickets for the next eleven highest sales went to Rolande Turcotte, $11.27; Frances Murphy, $11.02; Shirley Haugan, $10.87; Bert Tipton, $10.50; Mary Olsen, $10.00, Ernie Wallace, $9.97; Pat Tipton, $8.99; Gordon Finlayson, $8.75; Gail Shannon, $8.25; Ed Olsen $8.01; Olive Strand, $8.01.

Saturday morning, 61 children took boxes of blood-red poppies and cash boxes and posted themselves along Third Avenue and in other business sections to exchange them for coins which will aid the disabled soldiers.

The tag day was under direction of S. A. Cheeseman and Mrs. Dan Parent whose headquarters were in the Legion rooms. This afternoon, a dozen members of the Legion Women's Auxiliary took part in tre canvass.

For the children whose major effort was made Saturday morning, the W. A. had posted $5 in prizes, to be divided equally between the five canvassers who turned in the greatest amount of money. The Legion provided theatre tickets for the ten top sellers.

At noon, the canvassers received lunches prepared by Mrs. Henry Smith sr. and Mrs. Thomas Boulter.

Ladies canvassing included Mrs. W. Bryant, Mrs. Percy Bond, Mrs. C. E. Twaites, Mrs. W. J. Holt, Mrs. August Wallin, Mrs. W. Rothwell, Mrs. Frank Ellison, Mrs. J. S. Black, Mrs. E. C. Wallace, Mrs. Hugh Killin and Mrs. J. Gilchrist. Miss Anne De Grass, Miss Marylin Anderson and Miss M. Mortimer.

YEAR SENTENCES FOLLOWING THEFT

Two men will spend a year in jail with hard labor and a third six months with rard labor for breaking and entering and theft as a result of sentences handed down in police court at the week-end by Magistrate W. D. Vance.

Sentenced to a year in jail plus hard labor were Roy Innes and Fred White, both of whom had pleaded guilty to break and entry charges. Innes admitted entering the auction rooms of J. H. Mair on the night of October 31 and White pleaded guilty to a similar charge at Little's News Stand on the same night.

William Heavener, who pleaded guilty on Wednesday to entering a private room and taking a case of beer, which he later sold to an Indian, was sentenced to six months at hard labor.

A fine of $100 was levied against John Maksymshyn who was found guilty of a charge of theft from a person. He was charged with taking a sum of money from James Leeson.

Leonard Parnell, who pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy after he had kicked in a window in Elio's Furniture store. was sentenced to three months in jail.

Movie Stars Again Visit Jasper Park

When, a few seasons ago, the Emperor Waltz was staged amid the splendors of Jasper National Park, some of the stars promised themselves they would return some day. These promises were kept, to judge from the record of the season just closed. Among the Hollywood people who journeyed north again to enjoy the mountains, the fishing, golf and many other attractions were Victor Young, musical director and wife, Bing Crosby, Wally Westmore with wife and family, as well as others.

Moose Card Party-Dance Draws Many

Prince Rupert Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose was host Saturday night to large gathering of members and their friends who enjoyed an evening of card playing and dancing. Card playing, under direction of acting chairman of the entertainment committee, Percy Bond, took up the early part of the evening. Prize winners for the ladies were Mrs. A. E. Welch and Miss May Hiltz with P. Smith and Ted Rorvik scoring high for the men. Dancing to music provided by Steven's Orchestra commenced after cards. During an intermission refreshments were served and prizes were distributed to the winners at whist.

OCEAN FALLS MAN IS AWARD WINNER

Word has been received that a graduate of the University of British Columbia, Eugene F Machell, whose home was at Ocean Falls, is the winner of one of a number of valuable prizes offered annually by the American Association of Chemical Engineers.

This is the first time a U.B.C man has broken into the prize-winning class, competing with graduates of recognized schools of chemical engineering throughout North America.

Machell is at present employed in Chicago, being with the Foxborough Co., makers of industrial control instruments.

SCHOOL POPPY SALE NETS $67

Poppy Day collections in local schools on Friday netted $67.33 which will be placed in the Poppy Day fund resulting from today's poppy sale, P. M. Ray, Canadian Legion manager announced on Saturday. The collections came from the city's four public schools, Annunciation School not having made its return up to this morning. Booth Memorial High School turned in $37.48, Borden Street, $13.35, King Edward $8.75 and Conrad Street, $7.75.

Sales of wreaths, and poppies to merchants etc. for decoration of store windows etc. amounted to approximately $300.

IRISH FAMILY SETTLES HERE

From Eire's capital city of Dublin, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown and family have arrived in Prince Rupert to make their future home. The children are Mary Ann, aged 10; Therese, 9, and Dermot, 2. For the time being, they are residing at 416 Green Street with Mr. Brown's step-brother, A. W. Brown.

The family had been considering coming to Canada for some time and the name Prince Rupert became familiar to them through the recent visit to Dublin of Bishop Anthony Jordan of this city. Mr. Brown says that he and his family were greatly impressed with the kindness of Canada and particularly those of Prince Rupert.

The two girls will resume their studies at Annunciation School here. Mary attended a school in Dublin where all subjects were taught through the medium of Gaelic. Yet she speaks English fluently since it is still the predominant language in Eire.
