not set any worlds on fire.

Montreal may do well in the Interprovincial race but Montreal always seems to look well in early training but fall in actual conflict. But with Major Greenwood as coach the Winged Wheelers are likely to show something outstanding. Greenwood showed one of the best trained teams in Canada last fall in Royal Military College and if the Montreal players will do as told, improvement is bound to be noted. Ottawa are not likely to provide much opposition. They didn't last year and this fall look even weaker. Argonauts have jost Hughes from the backfield and are minus a good kicker. But much young material is available and the Double Blue may unearth one or two new stars. Balmy Beach, the Jew entrant into the O.R.F.U. senior race should win there. Hamilton Rowing Club are slow in starting and what they will have is certain because when Jack Newon is through selecting his In-'ercollegiate squad, the best of 'hose left will go to the O.R.F.U.

Western Situation

The western situation is also built up a team expected to eliminate all others but Regina surrate it does look as if the western winners will not go east for rific drubbing Regina received at the hands of Queen's last fall.
