"CODE OF THE SEA"

A sizzling action-romance of the rolling sea. The little known world of lightships as the setting of a thrill-packed tale of sailors and salt water. The drama of a weakling's brave fight to conquer fear. A spanking yarn of ships, full-rigged with thrills and action and freighted with tingling episodes that know no equal. Rod La Roque as skipper, with Jacqueline as best mate. Strong cast. Rod La Roque, Jacqueline Logan, Maurice Flynn, George Fawcett, Sam Appell, Lillian Leighton and numerous others.

MISS MARTHA BATES MARRIED THOS. MASON

Few Days Will be Spent Here, Before Leaving to Reside at China Hat

The marriage took place yesterday afternoon at two o'clock in the Methodist Church of Miss Martha Bates of Hartley Bay and Thomas Mason of China Hat, Rev. G. G. Hacker officiating. A small party of friends witnessed the interesting ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reece signed the register.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason will spend a few days here before going to China Hat to live.

SKIDEGATE GIRL IS BRIDE TO MASSETT MAN

Mr. and Mrs. Abrahams Will Reside in Massett After Spending Few Days Here

Last evening at eight o'clock there was an interesting wedding at the Methodist Church when Miss Sally Cross of Skidegate became the bride of Joshua Abrahams of Massett, Rev. G. G. Hacker officiating. The official witnesses were M. J. Williams of Skidegate and Mrs. Emily Parnell of Massett. A number of friends attended the ceremony.

The occasion was celebrated by a dance in the Elks' Hall with music by John Russ' orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Abrahams will spend a few days in the city before going to Massett to live.

FASHIONS & FOIBLES

by Shirley Sharon

Butter-yellow handkerchief linen is drawn into oblongs of hand-work across the front and trimmed with tiny frills of dyed yellow Val. on the collar and sleeves.

A BOW of orange ribbon is the only accentuating note of color on one of the new French lingerie frocks made of butter-colored handkerchief linen and trimmed with narrow lace and drawn-work. The yoke of the very short sleeve is made still lighter by the slash to the neck which divides the little collar and makes a cool frock even cooler. These dresses are very delightful in fine cotton voile or cotton crêpe or cotton Georgette, as well as in silk voiles and silk Georgettes—delightful to look at and to make, for the threads draw so easily. Crêpe de Chine is a little harder to work with but very smart.

PRINCESS RADISWALL FELL FROM CLIFF AND WAS KILLED IN MAINE

KINEAO, Maine, Sept. 16.—Princess Radizwall, a former Chicago girl, was killed yesterday when she fell a thousand feet from the top of a cliff. She was searching at the edge for a lost ring when she lost her foothold and fell to the bottom.

REPUBLICANS ARE ALARMED

Inroads of La Follette Campaign Weakening Their Cause in Middle West

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—(By Canadian Press).—Western Republicans are not a little alarmed over the extent to which the La Follette movement is gripping their sections of the country. In spite of the extremely optimistic statements which are going out from National Chairman Butler and from Republican national committee headquarters, western Republican leaders when they get down to facts admit they are concerned over the La Follette support.

Influential western Republicans charge that the Republican campaign is too much flavored with New England ideas and that Mr. Butler and those about him do not seem to grasp the western conditions and realize western sentiment. Some of them are carrying the matter to President Coolidge. He is being told that conditions for the Republcans in the west are not rosy and that hard campaigning and effective organization will be necessary to head off La Follette in the middle west and northwest.

Iowa, which some of the Republican leaders in the east say is a "cinch" for Coolidge, is looked on as doubtful by some able Republican leaders in the state. The loss of Iowa to Coolidge would be a hard blow. The feeling of Republicans there is that the fight is between Coolidge and La Follette and that if agricultural conditions in October and early November have not materially improved, there is no certainty Coolidge will get the state.

What is true of Iowa is true of a group of western and northwestern states and down in their boots the prospects are worrying Republicans who are best informed about the situation.

CORNER STONE STE. ANNE DE BEAUPRE LAID

Ceremony Took Place Sunday: Stacks of Crutches Thrown Away by Those Healed

QUEBEC, Sept. 16. — With all the imposing ritual of the Roman Catholic Church the corner stone of the new Basilica to be constructed at Ste. Anne de Beaupre was laid yesterday by His Eminence Cardinal Begin.

The new Basilica will stand on the site of the great church where miracles have been performed, known to many thousands of pilgrims throughout America, which was destroyed by fire in March, 1922. This church itself had replaced an older building incorporating parts of a chapel erected in 1868.

The chapel was constructed by a number of French sailors who, in the midst of a great storm, vowed that if Ste. Anne spared their lives they would build a shrine when they landed in Quebec. They safely made shore at Beaupre and kept their promise. This was the first miracle ascribed to the saint.

Since then the shrine has been visited by the sick yearly, and a feature of the last Basilica was the stacks of crutches thrown awy by those healed. The only part of the church saved from the fire was the fine golden statue of Ste. Anne, containing at its base bones of the saint. The pilgrims kiss the receptacle containing them when praying to be healed.

Dimensions of the new church are: External length, 325 feet; internal length, not reckoning the vestible, 285 feet, 65 of which are for the choir.

LADY OF 94 IS IN FAVOR BOBBED HAIR AND MODERN GIRLS

Says Paint and Morals Can Mix and Approves of Knickers

CHESTER, Conn., Sept. 16.—(By Candian Press).—Miss Eliza Watrous, the ninety-four-year-old "good sport" of this town, who astonished her friends by having her hair bobbed recently has an optimistic opinion of the future of the younger generation. She became an object of much attention by the metropolitan dailies following the announcement that she had been given a "boyish bob," and in an interview said she thought the style "comfortable and sensible."

"Girls are better off today than they were in my day," she explained, "and the modern miss is happier, more useful, and a better specimen physically than any woman of the thirties or forties. I am always sorry to hear oldee women speak harshly of the pretty young things who bob their hair in a natural effort to be attractive."

Bobbed hair, cosmetics and frankness, three attributes of the feminine youth of today, are approved by this delicate, blue-eyed woman with the young ideas, who believes paint and morals can mix.

"I am never afraid of anything that is natural and comes from the heart. Bobbed hair is one expression of my philosophy, and I find that because short hair and knickers were not the style in my own youth, that does not prove we were any better than those who follow the present style," added Miss Watrous with a slow smile.

Since she was sixteen Miss Watrous has worked, ceasing her hard labor when she was fifty, but every day she allowed time for some work. "I am afraid that I will become stale," she says, "and everyone is happier when working."

H. McEwen, C.N.R. division freight agent, sailed last night on the Prince Rupert for Ocean Falls on company business.
