Sport Chat

Unfortunately our athletes once in a while lose their heads and forget that gentlemanliness is an essential of good sportsmanship and that to lose with good grace is much more important and sporting than to win with temper and spleen. And a strange thing seems to be that the more experienced of our players at various sports are the ones who offend most in this regard. It is very poor taste to start a free fight over some annoying incident. To do so spoils the spirit of friendly competition which, in the interests of good clean sport, should always prevail. Those who cannot realize that there are other means of arbitrating disputes other than by a display of temper or brute strength should be ruled out of the game. Their presence is of no good to our younger athletes whose welfare and advancement is a first consideration. If a spirit of belligerence is to be taken on and shown actively, some one is going to be eliminated sooner or later and it would seem that the man who cannot govern his feelings should be the logical one to be dropped. Otherwise, somebody is apt to get hurt and it is not always he who deserves it who suffers.

The Canadian Badminton Championship Tournament for the season 1924-25, which is now in full swing, has been assigned to the Ottawa Garrison Badminton Club, and will take place in the Armories early next February. This was decided at a meeting of the Dominion Badminton Association held at Montreal recently. For this tournament players from all over Canada will congregate in Ottawa and the entry list is expected to be upwards of 200. There are strong Badminton clubs in Vancouver, Winnipeg, Edmonton, London, Hamilton, Kingston, Toronto, Quebec, Halifax, and St. John, and representatives of all these clubs will contest the Dominion championship. The Ottawa Garrison Club has several very strong players on its roster, including some Canadian champions and ex-champions. They will make a determined effort to hold the cups they have.
