ST. ANDREW'S BEATS
BILLIARD PARLOR BY VERY DECISIVE SCORE

The St. Andrew's Society made short work of the Prince Rupert Billiard Parlor in last night's Prince Rupert City Billiard League tournament, losing only one game and winning by an aggregate score of 910 to 753.

The scoring was as follows:

R. Davie (St. Andrew's)	101
George McMoyle (P.R.B.P.)	200
J. Andrews, 200; W. E. Hutchinson, 187.
S. D. Macdonald, 200; B. F. Self, 147.
Joe Brown, 200; S. J. Evans, 76.
M. M. McLachlan, 200; J. Smith, 173.

Team standings to date:

Games, Total, Aver.
G.W.V.A. 2	1970 985
S. of E. 1	955 955
P.R.B.P. 2	1735 868
Elks 2	1731 866
St. Andrew's 2	1641 821
Grotto 1	711 711

Standings to date:

Indians, as a team, not only led the American League in batting with an average of .301 but were the champion scoring machine, drew the most bases on balls and had the least number of strikeouts during the season. The feats of several of the players, especially Manager Tris Speaker, and Pitchers George Uhle and Stanley Coveleskie, stand out. Uhle won 26 games, more than any other pitcher in the circuit, and pitched to the most batters, 1393. In addition he worked in 29 complete games, another season's record. Coveleskie was the only American League pitcher to allow less than three earned runs to a game. His average was 2.76. In addition to leading the team in hitting with an average of .380, Speaker set a world's record by knocking out 59 two-base hits. Harry Heilmann and Babe Ruth were the only regulars to exceed Speaker's batting mark but the Cleveland leader drove in more runs than his Detroit rival and, playing in two less games, drove in just as many runs as Ruth—130. Cleveland batters drew 633 bases on balls, had 383 strikeouts and made 1,594 hits. They scored 888 runs, 57 more than Detroit, and 65 more than the champion Yankees, despite the latter's 105 home runs. Charley Jamieson, the tribe's star left fielder, led the league in hits, getting 222. Speaker was second with 318.

STEWART BOY MAKES OWN RADIO SET AND
HEARS THE OUTSIDENow With Modern Instrument
Sits in at Concerts and Lectures at all Points

It has remained for a 14-year-old Stewart schoolboy, Stavely Mellor, to silence the fireside skeptics who, for several years past, have argued that owing to the high mountains a wireless station could never be operated successfully in the town of Stewart says the Portland Canal News. Such has been a favorite topic at one time and another around the various glowing stoves, during the long, quiet, winter months. But a new generation has now dispelled this mist of pessimism, so confidently expounded by the pseudo-wise.

Made His Own

Stavely, without saying a word to his parents, or to anyone, for that matter, took a Quaker Rolled Oat container made of cardboard, around which he tightly wrapped 24-gauge covered copper wire, breaking the covering every ten turns, for the purpose of obtaining connection in order to adjust his instrument to the wave lengths; secured a specimen of galena ore from the Sultan mining claims on Bitter creek; rigged his aerials over his father's store. Then, when everything was all set, he told his father what he had done, and asked him to come and look at it. Together they went to the instrument, Stavely adjusted his head phones, and with great excitement clearly heard the wireless station at Hyder 2½ miles away, operating. The pleasure of this discovery over, with his father's assistance he felt out further, and eventually picked up wireless from Juneau, Prince Rupert and other north coast points.

Hears Many Points

Since then Mr. Mellor has presented his son with a radio receiving set, manufactured by the Northern Electric Co., for amateurs, and he has, as a result, during the past few weeks listened in on a number of concerts, speeches and press news, broadcasted from as far south as Los Angeles and as far east as Regina, and often picks up broadcasting from intermediary points such as Edmonton, Calgary, Vancouver and Seattle. Recently he heard a man making a speech in Regina, and heard him as clearly as though he were in the same room.

To date he has not installed a loud speaker, but hopes to do so as soon as he has completed certain experiments.

meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss M. A. Way, Fifth Avenue West, studied the lives and works of Johannes Brahms and Robert Browning, contemporaneous composer and poet of the Nineteenth Century. Miss Way read a paper on Brahms and Mrs. W. E. Williams one on Browning. As pianoforte duets, Miss Way and Mrs. Williams played Brahms' Hungarian Dance, No. 6 and waltzes for two pianos by the same composer. Mrs. Williams sang Brahms' "Little Dustman" and Miss Way recited Browning's "Toccata of Galuppi." There was a good attendance of members.
