DANCE TO SUPPORT CARNIVAL CANDIDATE AT ANYOX WEDNESDAY

ANYOX, Aug. 29.—The dance on Wednesday night in the gymnasium for the purpose of assisting in the candidature of Miss Dodds, who is the Anyox entrant in the Prince Rupert Carnival Queen Contest, was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. An excellent supper was served and dancing continued until two a.m., the feature of the evening being the twelve piece orchestra, all the members of which gave their services gratis. As the hall was donated by the Community League and friends of the young lady provided the supper, the total proceeds are available for the purchase of votes.
